the Crusaders, the team advanced in penalty kicks (2013, 2008).

- After Wednesday's win over Lehigh, Holy Cross is 2-0-0 in quarterfinal games.

The Crusaders in the Patriot League

- Holy Cross finished in fifth place in the league with a 4-3-2 conference record, despite being picked tenth in the preseason poll.
- The four league wins is the most since the 2013 season.
- Three Crusaders were tabbed for All-Patriot League honors as Justin Carfora and Arno Rupp were Second Team selections. Yuji Callahan was a Third Team selection for the second-consecutive season.
- With a fifth-place finish, the Crusaders secured their Patriot League Tournament bid for the first time since 2013, when the team finished in third place and advanced to the championship game.

All-Time vs. the Terriers

- The Crusaders are 2-12-4 against the Terriers all-time. In the 2017 season, Holy Cross was defeated by Boston University, 3-0, on Oct. 4.
- The semifinal game will be the first post-season match-up between the Crusaders and the Terriers.

Scouting Boston University

- The Terriers enter the Tournament as a No. 2 seed, finishing the regular season with a 7-8-3 overall record and 6-2-1 Patriot League record.
- Boston University has not scored a goal in their last 207 minutes of play, when they defeated Army, 3-1, on Oct. 25. Since then, the Terriers tied at Bucknell (Oct. 28, 0-0) and fell to Colgate (Nov. 3, 4-0).
- The Terriers are led by Toti Knutsson and Matt McDonnell. Knutsson has tallied three goals and five assists for 11 points in 16 games played. McDonnell has scored four goals and added one assist for nine points in 17 games played.
- Three goalkeepers have seen time for the Terriers, led by Michael Bernardi (1039:21 minutes). Bernardi has played 12 games for a 6-5-1 record, six shutouts, a 1.30 goals against average, and .674 save percentage.
