In 1996, the Penn Athletics Hall of Fame was established to preserve Penn’s rich athletic history and tradition by honoring those people who helped create it. Six heralded classes have been inducted since its establishment in 1996, and 32 of the total 150 distinguished members have played or coached Penn football.

The University of Pennsylvania football program has a long and distinguished line of alumni who have been enshrined in Halls of Fame. Forty-two men are members of at least one of three Halls of Fame; ten are members of two Halls; and one man, Chuck Bednarik, is a member of all three.

A further 18 Penn players, along with five coaches, belong to the National Football Foundation College Football Hall of Fame, located in South Bend, Ind.

In addition, two men — Bednarik and Bert Bell — are members of both the Penn Athletics Hall of Fame and the Pro Football Hall of Fame in Canton, Ohio. Bednarik is regarded as one of pro football’s all-time greats, while Bell holds the distinction of being the first man inducted into the Pro Football Hall of Fame.

(C) - indicates coach
Francis “Reds” Bagnell
Penn (1922), College (1927)
Bagnell was an All-America tailback who still holds a spot in the record book. In 1950, he had one of the greatest individual games in Penn history against Dartmouth when he accounted for 490 yards of total offense (a record which still stands).
That year, he finished third in the Heisman Trophy voting. A West Philadelphia native, he won nine varsity letters in college, three each for football, basketball and baseball.
Bagnell later became an associate trustee at Penn. He also served as chairman of the Maxwell Football Club, and served a term as president of the National Football Foundation College Hall of Fame, an organization into which he was inducted in 1977.

Chuck Bednarik

Penn (1955), College (1956), NFL (1957)
The last of football’s iron men, Chuck Bednarik was a center and linebacker who played his entire career in Philadelphia for Penn and the Philadelphia Eagles. Bednarik entered Penn at the age of 20 after having flown 30 combat missions over Germany in World War II. An All-America, Bednarik received the Maxwell Award, given to the player whom the Maxwell Club of Philadelphia considers the outstanding collegiate player in the nation. He was the first offensive lineman to receive the award.
He played for the Eagles, still on both sides of the ball, and was an eight-time all-pro selection.
Bednarik is a member of the Penn, College, and Pro Halls of Fame.

DeBenneville “Bert” Bell
Penn (2000), NFL (1963)
Bell was one of the most influential men in professional football history. Penn’s quarterback from 1915-19, Bell led the Quakers to the 1917 Rose Bowl. After graduation, Bell got into coaching, including stints at Penn and Temple, but eventually bought the Frankford Yellowjackets of the NFL. Bell moved the team to Franklin Field and renamed them the Philadelphia Eagles.
Bell’s impact as an owner, and later NFL commissioner, was immense. He conceived the NFL draft, doubled the 1920 overtime and televised night games; he raised salaries, increased attendance by 100 percent, and banned gambling.
In 1963, Bell was the first man inducted into the Pro Football Hall of Fame.

Edward “Eddie” Bell, Sr.
Penn (1908)
One of the greatest defensive ends in Penn history, Bell was an All-America in 1951 and 1952. Along with fellow Hall of Famer Bob Evans, Bell was one of the first two African-Americans to play football at Penn.
Bell later played in the NFL with the Eagles and Jets. A talented multi-sport athlete, Bell also helped his team win the sprint medley Championship of America at the 1951 Penn Relays.

Bernard “Barney” Berliner, Jr.
Penn (1996)
A football and track athlete, Berliner captured the 1959 Penn team which captured the program’s first Ivy League title. In 1958 he was the first Quaker to be selected first-team All-Ivy, repeating the feat in 1959 while leading the team in receiving both years.
He also received Penn’s Class of 1915 award.
His father, Bernard Sr., is also in the Penn Hall of Fame as a track athlete.

Eliot Berry
Penn (2000)
Berry was a rare three-sport athlete in the 1960’s, excelling at football, squash and tennis. As Penn’s kicker, he booted 27 career field goals and 141 total points. An All-Ivy selection in both football and squash, Berry went on to try out with the Pittsburgh Steelers and eventually signed with the Atlanta Falcons under coach Norm Van Brocklin.
Berry never played a pro football game, but continued to excel at squash, playing on the U.S. National Team and enjoying a successful professional career abroad.

J. Howard Berry
Penn (1998)
One of the early three-sport stars at Penn, Berry excelled in football, baseball and track at Penn from 1915 to 1917.
Berry played halfback, punter and placekicker for the Quakers and was outstanding at each.
After graduation, Berry played professional football with the Pottsville Maroons but was better known for his professional baseball career with the New York Giants winning the World Series in 1921 and 1922.

George Brooke

College (1969)
George Brooke played seven years of college football, first as a fullback at Swarthmore in 1899-92 and then at the same position at Penn from 1893-95.

A two-time All-America selection, Brooke was a member of teams that won 38 of 41 games and two national championships. Besides being a powerful runner, Brooke was also the Quakers’ kicker. He developed in his punting a low, long spiral that was hard for the receiver to return and easy for the ends to cover.

Donald Clune

Penn (1996)
Clune smashed virtually every receiving record in the books during his career from 1971-73. Still Penn’s third-highest all-time receiver, Clune today holds the record for most yards in a game (284 vs. Harvard in 1971).
Clune holds four of the top 10 single-game receiving performances in Penn history. He actually had his best season as a sophomore, catching 40 passes for 991 yards and five touchdowns.
Upon graduation, Clune won the Class of 1975 award. In 1980, he was named to the Ivy League’s Silver Anniversary team.

Richard “Cosmo” Comizio

Penn (2003)
Comizio enjoyed a career packed with virtually every award conceivable as a running back from 1984-86.
As a sophomore, Comizio ran for 969 yards, earning Ivy League Rookie of the Year honors; by the time he was a senior, he had racked up Penn’s first-ever 1,000-yard season and was named the Ivy League MVP. He won an Ivy League title in every season he played and, after graduation earned the Class of 1915 award.

Fred Doelling

Penn (2003)
Doelling was a standout running back and punter who led Penn to its first Ivy League title in 1959. A versatile player, Doelling led Penn in rushing for three straight seasons, was an excellent defensive back, and at the time of his graduation held the program record with 33 punts for an average of 45.7 yards per punt.
Doelling went on to sign with the Dallas Cowboys and was the last Penn player to play in the Chicago Title game, an annual all-star game pitting college seniors against the NFL champions.

Robert Evans

Penn (2005)
Robert “Bob” Evans, Co’73, was a three-year letterwinner in football who served as that team’s first African-American captain.
In an era when Penn competed against high-powered programs, Evans caught the sporting world’s attention when he was named captain of the Quakers in 1952.
Evans also was a member of the Scholasophy’s basketball team in 1948. At Penn, his standout performances earned him high praise from opponents, and he was named to Notre Dame’s All-Opponent team.

Chris Flynn

Penn (1998)
Chris Flynn was possibly the most versatile and skilled athlete at Penn in the 1960’s, earning All-Ivy honors and setting school records in both football and lacrosse, while leading his teams to five league championships.
Flynn made the All-Ivy League second team his sophomore and senior seasons, with first-team accolades coming his junior season.
In his three years on the gridiron, the Quakers won two championships. In Flynn’s senior year versus Dartmouth, he tied a Penn record with five touchdowns in one game. Flynn’s average of 5.7 yards per carry over his career is still tops at Penn.

Charles Gelbert

College (1960)
Charlie Gelbert was a four-year starter for Penn. Walter Camp named him All-America in 1894, 1895, 1896. Gelbert was recognized for his sharp blocking and tackling. In his last three seasons Penn outscored its opponents 1,594 to 130. Jack Kofoid, writing in the Philadelphia Record in 1912, named Gelbert to his all-time All-America team.

T. Truxtun Hare

Penn (1998), College (1951)
Hare is one of a just a few men to be a four-time All-American. Selected as an inaugural member of the College Football Hall of Fame in 1951, he has been named to numerous All-Time All-America teams.
Hare played every minute of every game at Penn, going 15-0 in 1897 and 47-5-2 in his career. Hare was also on the 1900 Olympic track team at Paris, placing second in the hammer throw and first in the tug of war.

Harvey Harman

College (1981)
Harman was president of the American Football Coaches Association and winner of the Amos Alonzo Stagg Award for outstanding service to the sport. He took his first coaching assignment at Haverford and later coached at Sewanee, Penn and Rutgers.
Harman went on to become the Executive Director of the National Football Foundation and Hall of Fame. In that capacity, Harman became known as the goodwill ambassador for football.

Hall of Famers

John Heisman

Collegiate (1954)

John Heisman, for whom the coveted Heisman Trophy is named, was a master innovator of football. He originated the hidden-ball play, was the first to place his quarterback safety on defense, invented the center snap, dreamed up the concept of the scoreboard, introduced the “hike” voice signal for initiating a play, led the fight to reduce the game from halves to quarters, and was in the forefront of the move to legalize the pass in 1906.

Heisman played every line position while at Brown and Penn. He coached at Oberlin, Akron, Auburn, Clemson and Georgia Tech before coaching at Penn from 1920 to 1922, then coached at Washington & Jefferson and finally Rice. His overall career record stood at 185-70-17 when he retired in 1927.

Bill Hollenback

Penn (1996),
College (1951)

A hard-nosed running back, Hollenback played on national championship teams in 1904 and 1908, serving as captain in 1908. He started every game in 1906, 1907 and 1908, and was an All-American in 1906 and 1908.

He went on to coach at Penn State, Missouri, Syracuse and Pennsylvania Military, and was also an official.

Hollenback was famous for his toughness. He once played an entire game despite having a leg fracture, dislocations of both shoulders, shin splints and hip bruises.

Bryan Keys

Penn (2008)

A two-time All-American, including first-team honors his senior year. Set the school’s single-season rushing record as a junior with 1,165 yards, then broke his own mark a year later with 1,302 yards. Obliterated the single-game standard for yards with 249 against Brown. Set six other records during his career. Finished his senior season fourth nationally in all-purpose yards per game, seventh in rushing yards per game, and seventh in points per game. When he graduated, was second among Ivy players in career rushing yards.

Bernie Lemanick

Penn (1996)

During his brilliant career for the Quakers Bernie Lemanick was regarded as one of the top linemen in the nation. Honored as an All-American after the 1950 season, he played in the East-West Shrine game, the Hula Bowl and on the NFL’s College All-Star team against the Cleveland Browns.

Lemanick returned to Penn and helped coach the team to its first Ivy League championship in 1959.

Jack McCloskey

Penn (2000)

A varsity letterwinner in football, basketball and baseball, McCloskey was a true all-around athlete. He was an All-America in football, was offered to play professional baseball for the Philadelphia Athletics and played professional basketball with the Philadelphia Warriors. He was a five-time member of the All-Star team and earned back-to-back Eastern League MVP honors in 1953 and 1954.

McCloskey returned to Penn in 1956, coaching the basketball program to its first Philadelphia Big 5 Championship in 1963 and the first Ivy League Championship in 1966. He later built the Detroit Pistons team that won two NBA titles in 1989-90.

Josiah McCracken

Penn (2000)

McCracken played guard on the second-highest scoring team in Penn football history (443 points). The following year McCracken was named an All-America and finished his Penn football career with a record of 47-5-2.

In his sophomore year McCracken set a world record for the hammer throw and was an All-America selection for his efforts. He went on to participate in the 1900 Olympic Games in Paris. There, he won a silver medal in the shot put and followed that with a bronze medal in the hammer throw.

Ed McGinley

Penn (1996),
College (1979)

Ed McGinley was a tackle who was considered the top defensive unit in the nation, one that allowed opponents only 31 points in 11 games. When selecting McGinley for his 1924 All-America team, Walter Camp said, “He has that greatest of assets - consistency. He has played no poor games. He is an ideal tackle for our team, possessed as he is of the greatest of qualities.”

Upon graduation McGinley went on to play for the New York Giants.

Lee Mercer

Penn (1998),
College (1955)

Lee Mercer first made a reputation by breaking through enemy defenses as one of the program’s outstanding running backs. Mercer was twice named All-America, in 1910 and 1912, and served as team captain for his two final seasons. He scored 30 touchdowns during his three-year varsity career, 15 in his senior season alone. These accomplishments all came without any secondary football experience.

As a senior, Mercer was named to the United States Olympic Team and participated in the broad jump.

Jack Minds

College (1962)

Fullback Jack Minds was a master of the game. He operated at guard, tackle, end, halfback and fullback, and revolutionized the kicking game from 1994-97. He didn’t think drop kicking was accurate enough so he decided to try something new. As a result, Minds converted the first kick from placement, a feat he often repeated during his illustrious career. Honored with three All-America selections by Walter Camp, Penn was 55-1 with two undefeated National Championship seasons with Minds in the line up.

Skip Minisi

Penn (1996),
College (1985)

Skip Minisi was an All-America halfback who rushed for 1,300 yards in his Penn career (1944-47). His 150 points scored is still the seventh highest career total in school history. He was described as a top wingback in the country and a polished all-around performer who was a good runner and blocker, and a devastating southpaw passer. Minisi went on to be the Giants’ 28th overall draft pick and served as a college football official for more than 30 years.

George Munger

Penn (1996),
College (1976)

George Munger was a superb, relaxed athlete, an innovative coach, and a meticulous administrator. He played halfback from 1930-32 at Penn and starred on the track team. He went on to coach, and in his 16 years as Penn’s head coach he compiled an 82-42-10 record and led teams to national rankings of No. 8 in 1945 and No. 7 in 1947. He served as vice-president of the National Football Foundation, vice-president of the Maxwell Club, president of the American Football Coaches Association and director of the Pop Warner League. He was also a member of the U.S. Olympic Equestrian Committee and the physical fitness committees under Presidents Roosevelt, Eisenhower, and Kennedy.

Franny Murray

Penn (1998)

Franny Murray was a two-sport All-America and the 1937 winner of the Class of ’17 Award. On the gridiron, he was a member of the “Destiny Backfield” of 1936, and excelled as a ball carrier and a control kicker. In 1936, he was named to the All-United States team, a squad of 11 men who could play a full 60-minute game. Murray was also an outstanding guard for the basketball team, and was named a Helms Foundation All-American in 1937. After Penn, he played with the Philadelphia Eagles in 1939 and 1940.

Bob Odell

Penn (1996),
College (1992)

Bob Odell did it all for Penn in 1943. He ran, passed, punted, received, returned kickoffs and punts, and played defense.

He made four All-America teams, won the Maxwell Trophy, and was runner-up to Angelo Bertelli for the Heisman Trophy. In his three playing seasons at Penn, the team record was 18-6-2 overall. He was captain his senior year and honored with the Class of 1915 Award. Odell went on to coach at Yale, Temple, Wisconsin, Bucknell, Penn and William.

Winchester Osgood

College (1970)

Winchester Osgood played halfback for four years at Cornell, 1888-89 and 1891-92, and for two at Penn, 1893-94. Cornell had been playing in his playing time; Penn went 24-3. In 1894 Penn went 12-0 and was National Champion. At Cornell, Osgood received a medal as the school’s best all-around athlete. He ran the 440 and put the shot for the track team, was an accomplished gymnast, boxer, wrestler, tennis player, and set a record of 5:28 for the 2-mile bicycle race.

John Outland

College (2001)

In 1895, having never played football before, John Outland decided to try out for the team at the University of Kansas. He made it. He moved to Penn to study for a medical degree and lettered on the football team from 1897-99, earning captain status in 1898. Walter Camp named him All-America tackle in 1897 and All-America halfback in 1898. He went on to coach at Franklin & Marshall in 1900, Kansas in 1901, Washburn from 1904-05, and Haskell Indian School in 1906. In 1946 the Football Writers Association initiated the Outland Award, named for him, to honor the nation’s best interior lineman.
David Pottruck
Penn (2000)

David Pottruck, former Penn wrestling coach Larry Lauchle said, was “a hard-nosed guy that kept pushing everyone. He put 120 percent into everything he did... and gave everything he had all the time.” His art clearly showed on the gridiron as he started in all 27 varsity games played and earned All-Ivy honors as a senior. In 1968 and 1969 he helped the wrestling team earn their first two Ivy League Championships.

Pottruck went on to win gold at the Maccabiah Olympic Games in Greco-Roman wrestling and served as honorary captain of 2000 USA Olympic Freestyle wrestling team. He is also a member of the Hall of Outstanding Americans of the National Wrestling Hall of Fame.

John “Bull” Schwerder
Penn (2003)

John “Bull” Schwerder spent six years in the National Football League – one year with the Baltimore Colts (1950) and five with the Pittsburgh Steelers (1951-55). As a guard in his senior year at Penn, he was named First-Team All-America by the Associated Press and the International News Service. He was also awarded the Most Valuable Player award for that year by the Bakers Club. In 1949, Schwerder played in the East-West Shrine Classic Game, making him one of only 24 Quakers to do so. He also played in the annual College All-Stars football game in Chicago, Ill. That same year, he was also named First-Team All-East.

Paul Scull
Penn (2003)

Paul Scull’s single game record of 312 all-purpose yards is the oldest standing record in Penn football history. Set in 1928 against Cornell, Scull scored four touchdowns and seven after-touchdown points, passed for 229 yards, intercepted one pass and returned kickoffs for 75 yards. As a sophomore, Scull was elected by the Veteran Athletes’ Association as the most valuable player in the East, and he was named a consensus First-Team All-America as a senior. Scull also earned the national dropkicker of the year title after making 23 of 25 point-after-touchdown kicks that year.

Andy Smith
Penn (1951)

An All-America fullback at Penn in 1904, Andy Smith was a master of the game. He began his coaching career at Penn, where he logged a record of 30-10-3. From there, Smith moved to Purdue and then to California where he began molding his legendary Golden Bears teams. His famous “Wonder Teams” went undefeated for an incredible five-season span, going 44-0-2 in that time. It all began with the 9-0-0 run in 1920. In 1921, the Bears won another nine games before Washington & Jefferson managed a scoreless tie in the Rose Bowl. It was 9-0-0 again in 1922, then 9-0-1 the next year, when Cal allowed only seven points all year long. Finally, the last of the Wonder Teams, the 1924 club, finished 8-0-2.

Vince Stevenson
College (1968)

A featherweight quarterback at 148 pounds, Vince Stevenson possessed an innovative flair for the game. It was this uncommon gift for pulling off the unexpected that enabled Stevenson to lead the Quakers to a perfect 12-0 record in 1904. Penn out scored its competition 222-4 that season and Stevenson merited Walter Camp All-America recognition. Fifty years after his graduation, Stevenson was still being named to All-Time Penn teams.

Robert Torrey
College (1971)

Robert Torrey, the Penn captain, helped lead the Quakers to an undefeated record in 1905. The team went 12-0-1, only tying Lafayette 6-6. When the Quakers went 12-0-0 the previous year, Swarthmore had been the only team to even score against them. For certain, the Penn teams in those early years at the turn of the 20th century were powerhouse in the blood-and-brawn days of gridiron pioneering. Torrey was among the best of the nation’s linemen and won All-America laurels following the 1905 campaign.

Joe Valerio
Penn (2005)

In 1988, Joe Valerio lettered for the Quakers’ team that went 9-1 and won the Ivy League championship. The next year, Valerio received first-team All-Ivy accolades; as a senior, Valerio was a team captain and held pre-season All-America titles. That year he added Penn’s Bednarik (top lineman) and Munger (MVP) Awards, first-team All-Ivy honors, a first-team All-ECAC nod, and first-team All-America accolades to his list of achievements. Valerio was selected to play in the East-West Shrine Game, and went to the Kansas City Chiefs in the second round of the NFL draft where he played for five seasons.

John Welsh
Penn (2008)

One of Penn’s famed “Mungermen.” In his third varsity game, picked off four passes against Princeton, a record that still stood at the time of his induction (68 years later). Finished sophomore season with nine picks, another record that was still intact at the time of his induction, and ended his career with 13. His Penn teams did not lose to any Ivy competition during his three years, outsourcing its competition 595-206 with seven shutouts. Came back to coach after World War II. Organized the Varsity Football Club and served as its first president.

Charles Wharton
College (1963)

Charles Wharton was a guard on the Penn team that won national championships in 1894 and 1895. Wharton was a blocking dynamo, often taking out entire sides of an enemy line. During his career at Penn, the Quakers won 52 of 56 games, and the behemoth of a lineman twice garnered consensus All-America honors. Wharton went on to serve as a line coach at Penn as well as the school’s director of field athletics.

Morton Wilner
Penn (2008)

Two-sport star at Penn, Captain and second baseman for the 1929 and 1930 baseball teams, leading Quakers to a combined 41-13 record (the 1929 team won 22 games, a record that lasted 45 years). A three-time all-league selection in leading Penn to three Quadrangular League championships. In football, honorable mention All-America quarterback his senior year. Led the Quakers to a combined 15-3 mark his last two years. Voted by his classmates for the Spoon Award. Later in life, served as an alumni trustee (1965-70), a term trustee (1970-78) and an emeritus trustee (1978-2000).

George Woodruff
College (1963)

As a four-year starter at Yale from 1885-88, George Woodruff invented the “running guard,” and later pioneered the guards-back play, a forerunner to Henry Williams’ tackle-back set. Woodruff also devised the idea of crashing ends on defense. In his playing days at Yale, they had a 38-1-1 record and outscored opponents 2262-27.

Woodruff went on to coach at Penn from 1892-1901, becoming one of the most distinguished coaches of his era. His teams had winning streaks of 34 and 31 games. From 1894-97 they won 55-1. The 1895 and 1897 teams were national champions. His 10-year record at Pennsylvania was 124-15-2, and his teams scored 1777 points to opponents’ 88.
