Matt HEATH*Head Coach*AT COFC: 27-23-1 (1st year)*OVERALL: 27-23-1 (1st year)

College of Charleston pitching coach Matt Heath was promoted to head baseball coach on June 22, 2015.

Having served two coaching stints with the program under former head coaches John Pawlowski (2006-08) and Monte Lee (2011-Present), Heath boasts an impressive track record of coaching – enhanced by his professional experience as a player and scout.

One of the rare coaches in the country who has coached both hitting and pitching and had success on both sides of the ball, Heath has learned from the best in the game having played for two college coaches that have won a total of seven national championship titles in legendary LSU head coach Skip Bertman (5) and former Florida head coach Andy Lopez (2).

Heath, 36, recently completed his fifth year as CofC's pitching coach developing a talented rotation that has compiled a cumulative ERA of 3.56 over the past five years. During the 2015 season, the Cougars achieved their second-highest national ranking (No. 13), won the regular-season CAA Championship title and made their third NCAA Regional appearance in the last four years.

In all, Heath has coached a National Freshman Pitcher of the Year, a consensus All-American, two Freshman All-Americans, a SoCon Pitcher of the Year, a CAA Pitcher of the Year and 13 all-conference pitchers. In addition, the CofC pitching staff led the Southern Conference in ERA in 2012 and 2013, and then set a new school record with an ERA of 2.73 in 2014, which ranked No. 18 in the nation. This past season, CofC led the CAA in ERA, shutouts, strikeout-to-walk ratio, WHIP and walks allowed per nine innings.

Among Heath's pupils was 2015 consensus All-American Taylor Clarke, who led the pitching staff with one of the most decorated campaigns in program history. He tied for the national lead with 13 victories amassing a 13-1 record in 16 starts. Clarke boasted an impressive 1.73 ERA with opponents batting just .185 against him. Over the course of the year, he fanned a school-record 143 strikeouts to rank third in the nation, while limiting himself to just 14 walks for a 10.21 strikeout-to-walk ratio, the fourth-best in the country. Clarke became CofC's highest-ever draft pick selected by the Arizona Diamondbacks as the first pick in the third round (76th pick overall).

Heath was also responsible for the compelling transformation of Brandon Glazer from an every-day right fielder in 2014, to becoming the program's ninth 10-game winner and an All-CAA First Team selection in 2015. With only 3.1 innings pitched under his belt, he began the year out of the bullpen, making five relief appearances before making his first career start in a mid-week game against USC Upstate. Just over two weeks later, he made a weekend start at James Madison in CAA play, and from there cemented his role as the Cougars' No. 2 starter. After the JMU game, Glazer went at least six innings in each of his nine remaining starts, six of which were quality starts. He finished the year with 49 strikeouts against just 11 walks in 88.2 innings of work. Glazer signed a professional contract with the Los Angeles Angels.

Also during the 2015 season, Heath developed the true-freshman arms of Carter Love, an All-CAA Second Team and CAA All-Rookie Team honoree, and Will Detwiler, who both made immediate impacts on the mound. Both freshman pitchers turned in sub-two ERAs on the year, and proved to be reliable pitchers for the Cougars.

In 2014, CofC's pitching staff helped carry the Cougars to one of the best seasons ever in program history. Charleston advanced to the NCAA Lubbock Super Regional behind a phenomenal weekend rotation made up of a redshirt-sophomore and two true freshmen. CofC broke a number of school records in ERA (2.73), opposing batting average (.224), walks per nine innings (2.55), WHIP (1.10) and tied the school record for saves (20). CofC's ERA ranked No. 18 in the nation, while the WHIP ranked seventh and CofC's strikeout-to-walk ratio of 2.89 ranked No. 9 in the country.

2014's success was spearheaded by NCBWA Freshman Pitcher of the Year Bailey Ober, who finished third in the CofC record books with a 1.53 ERA, while setting new school records in opposing batting average (.192) and WHIP (0.86). Ober's WHIP ranked eighth-best in the nation, while his ERA led all freshmen pitchers. Ober teamed with Clarke to become the first pair of 10-game winners on the same team in school history. Freshman Tyler Thornton finished second in school history with a WHIP of 1.00 to go with crucial wins in the CAA and Regional title games. Senior Michael Hanzlik led the bullpen with a school-record 16 saves, which ranked eighth in the country.

The 2013 pitching corps saw continued success despite losing over half the staff from the 2012 season to the pro ranks. They led the SoCon for the second-straight year in ERA (4.20), batting average against (.264) and had the lowest number of walks with 167. The staff finished No. 21 in the nation with a strikeout-to-walk ratio of 2.63. Senior starter Jake Zokan was drafted in the ninth round by the Seattle Mariners, while senior Matt Pegler earned preseason All-America honors.

The 2012 season showcased one of the top three pitching staffs in program history. Four pitchers signed professional contracts after the season with Christian Powell winning the SoCon Pitcher of the Year award. Matt Pegler and Kyle Owings joined Powell on the all-conference squad as the staff posted the second-lowest batting average against in league history (.241) while ranking nationally in ERA (26th), strikeout-to-walk ratio (17th) and strikeouts per nine innings (17th).

Heath initially came to Charleston in 2006 after spending two seasons as an assistant coach at Tallahassee Community College in Tallahassee, Fla. In his first stint with the Cougars, he worked primarily with the hitters and CofC excelled under his guidance. The offense was ranked nationally in numerous categories and broke multiple school and conference records.

After two years in the Lowcountry, Heath accepted an assistant coaching position at Auburn. There, he worked with hitters, fielders and catchers leading the Tigers to national rankings in several categories and breaking numerous school records during the 2009 season. Heath later scouted for the Houston Astros covering the North Florida area, before returning to the College of Charleston on Lee's staff for the 2011 season.

A former prep star who was named North Florida Player of the Year out of Fernandina Beach High School in his hometown of Fernandina Beach, Fla., Heath went on to play at the University of Florida for two years. He later transferred to LSU, where he was a two-time All-SEC Tournament selection, making the team as a catcher in 2001 and playing in the outfield the next season. In 2002, he led LSU in home runs and runs scored, and was also selected to the All-Tournament Team at the NCAA Baton Rouge Regional.

Heath graduated from LSU with a bachelor's degree in general studies in 2002 and later signed a pro contract and played for the Arizona Diamondbacks organization for two seasons. He and his wife, Elizabeth, have one daughter, Everett "EB", and one son, Hagan.

Home of the Cougars

The College of Charleston roster is again heavily loaded with home-grown players in 2016. A total of 18 members of the squad hail from South Carolina.

The roster also includes players from North Carolina (3), Virginia (3), Georgia (2), Pennsylvania (2), New Jersey (2), New York (2), Florida (1), Texas (1) and West Virginia (1).

Brothers in Arms

Right-handed pitchers Nathan and Clay Helvey are the first brothers to play for the College of Charleston baseball team since Thomas and Owen Brittle - also both pitchers - who played from 2009-2010.

On March 15, 2016 at Furman, the Helvey's became the first brothers to pitch in the same game since Evan and Jake Goldberg on March 15, 2008 - a 26-20 loss to Indiana State. The Goldberg's pitched in the same game twice that season. Freshman Evan Goldberg made his collegiate debut in a relief role for older brother, Jake - a senior - on Feb. 26, 2008 against #26 Coastal Carolina. CofC won the game, 13-12.

Same Last Names

CofC has two pairs of players on the 2016 roster with the same last name, though just one pair are brothers (Nathan and Clay Helvey).

- Nathan Helvey
- Carter Love
- Clay Helvey
- JK Love

Holding Late Leads

Since 2011, when Matt Heath took over as pitching coach, College of Charleston has compiled an amazing 197-2-1 (.989) record when leading after eight innings.

Back-to-Back Dingers

College of Charleston hit back-to-back home runs four times in 2015 and once in 2016.

He's Not A Single Man

Bradley Jones started the 2016 season with a bang. The junior's first 10 hits were for extra bases. Jones hit six home runs and four doubles before collecting his first single on March 5.

One Inning, Two Homers

In the fourth inning of game three against Mercer on March 13, College of Charleston trailed, 8-5. Junior Erven Roper led off the inning with a solo shot to right field. After the team batted around, Roper stood in a blasted a 2-2 pitch over the wall in right for a two-run home run to cap an eight-run inning.

Beating the Best

College of Charleston has defeated seven ranked teams in 2016.

Date	Opponent	Rank
2/26	Florida State	10
3/2	Coastal Carolina	18
3/22	Coastal Carolina	21
3/29	South Carolina	2
4/9	UC Santa Barbara	12
5/8	UNCW	15
5/11	Clemson	23

Flirting with History

The Cougars were one out away from tossing the second combined no-hitter in program history on March 5 against The Citadel.

Bailey Ober pitched 7.2 innings of hitless baseball before being lifted due to pitch count (90). Will Detwiler entered in relief and record the final out of the eighth inning.

Carter Love came on to pitch the ninth and struck out the first two hitters he faced. The Citadel leadoff hitter Jason Smith then lofted a 2-1 pitch into right field that dropped for the Bulldogs only hit. Love struck out the next batter to preserve the 1-0 win.

Nothing But A Winner

Erven Roper has scored the winning run in the last three CofC walk-off victories (23 inn. win vs. W&M, 2014; home run vs. Auburn, 2015; 5-4 win over Mercer, 2016).

One to Remember

On March 26 in game two of a doubleheader against Delaware, freshman Danny Wondrack hit his first career home run - a grand slam in the seventh inning.

Erven Roper: Master Craftsman

Starting around the age of nine, CofC junior Erven Roper began crafting his own wooden baseball bats using his father's tools in the family garage. This past offseason, Roper made bats for all of his teammates and coaching staff.
