Compliance Newsletter for Charlotte 49ers Coaches

BYLAW OF THE MONTH!

13.10.2.1 Comments Before Commitment. Before the signing of a prospective student-athlete to a NLI or an institutions written offer of admission and/or financial aid or before the institution receives his or her financial deposit in response to its offer of admission, a member institution may comment publicly only to the extent of confirming its recruitment of the prospective student-athlete. The institution may not comment generally about the prospective student-athlete's ability or the contribution that the prospective student-athlete might make to the institutions team; further, the institution is precluded from commenting in any manner as to the likelihood of the prospective student-athlete committing to or signing with that institution.

Validated NLI for Recruits, now what?

Once a recruit signs a NLI the level of contact you have as a coach may change because of this new status. Use the listed items below to guide you as to what you can and cannot do related to the newly signed recruits.

- * No limit on the number of phone calls
- * Permissible to text or instant message
- * No limit on the number of contacts
- * No longer subject to the application of a dead period

Some of the limitations that still exist are...

- * Three complimentary tickets to an on site athletic competition during an unofficial visit
- * No contact by a booster except for pre-enrollment visit activities
- * No contact at signees site of competition during day of competition

For additional information on permissible activities, review bylaws 13.02.12.1, 13.02.5.5.2 & 13.1.6.2. If you have any questions please ask a member of the compliance staff.
