2004-2005 OUTLOOK

The Old Dominion University men's golf squad returns three lettermen from last year's Colonial Athletic Association championship runners-up team of a year ago. The Monarch returnees include seniors Adam Condello and Leighton Harris, juniors Gregory Sampson, and Nick Kenney, a second team All-State selection, sophomore Jack Babashanian, and newcomers Kyle Hartlaub, George Zolotas and Stan Guerrero.

Greg Sampson came on strong last spring finishing as ODU's top golfer in four tournaments. He tied for first at the CAA Championships, but lost in a sudden death playoff. Thus far in the fall, he placed sixth at Seascape and 11th at the Joe Agee tournament. Kenney took fourth at Wofford last spring, while Condello placed ninth at the Mission Inn tournament, his second straight top ten finish in that event.

Monarch newcomer George Zolotas, the Massachusetts High School Player of the Year from Peabody, MA, tied for 20th at the Raines Tournament in the fall. Kyle Hartlaub, from Summit, NJ was an alternate for the United States Junior Amateur last year. Also joining the Monarch family in the spring semester is Stan Guerrero from Mexico.

As a team, the youthful Monarchs showed steady improvement during the fall season placing third at the ODU/Seascape Collegiate. Last year, the Monarchs had eight top ten finishes. The Monarchs won the Mission Inn Collegiate in Orlando, FL, took third at the W&M Kingsmill Intercollegiate and sixth at the Wofford Invitational. ODU capped off the season with a second place finish at the CAA Championships, their third top three finish in the last five years.

Once again, the Monarchs will be playing some of the toughest competition in the Southeast this season as they look to continue the proud tradition of success that has become a staple of the Old Dominion golf program.

"The young Monarch squad showed improvement during the Fall, and should have a strong spring with the golfers who played in the fall and the addition of Stan Guerrero for the second semester, notes Rudisill."

Dr. Murray Rudisill

Head Coach

A five-time conference and four-time Virginia State Coach of the Year, Dr. Murray Rudisill has been the head coach at Old Dominion University for 30 years.

During his tenure, the Monarch program has grown into one of the top rated teams in the Southeast. Last year, the Monarchs took second at the Colonial Athletic Association Championships, and Rudisill was named Virginia College Coach of the Year.

In 2003, ODU captured their first ever CAA championship with a sudden death playoff win over UNC Wilmington. That earned the Monarchs their first ever NCAA team tournament appearance. The Monarchs tied for 15th at the West Regionals.

Geoffrey Harris was named CAA Player of the Year for the second straight time and also earned All-Region honors. Harris was also one of five finalists for the prestigious Byron Nelson Award. Rudisill earned CAA Coach of the Year honors in 2003 which adds to his previous honors in 1999 and 2000 along with Coach of the Year honors in the Sun Belt in 1984 and 1989. He was selected Virginia College Coach of the Year by the Portsmouth Sports Club in 1988, and his fellow coaches in the State of Virginia have selected him Coach of the Year in 1988, 2000, 2003 and 2004. Rudisill has served on the board of Directors for the Virginia State Golf Association, and is serving his fourth, five-year term as chairman of the Virginia State Golf Coaches Association. Additionally, he has served as chairman for the selection committee for the NCAA Golf District III. Rudisill is a member of the board of trustees of College Golf Fellowship. Two of Rudisill's former golfers, Jim McGovern and Joe Daley qualified for the PGA tour in 1998. In 1991, Jon Hurst became the first Monarch to qualify at the NCAA Division I Championships in Monterey, CA., and earned All-American honors. Hurst along with Alan Schulte, a two-time Sun Belt Conference champion are both in the ODU Sports Hall of Fame. Rudisill has coached back-to-back CAA Rookie's of the Year in Michael Hospodar in 1999 and Geoffrey Harris in 2000. The 1999 Monarch squad ranked first in the nation in par three scoring at 3.11.

The 2000 squad lost the CAA Championships by one stroke and ranked in the top ten in the district and the nation's top 50. In 2002, Geoffrey Harris ranked as high as second nationally with a stroke average at 70.0 after the Fall season, and later competed in the prestigious Palmer Cup for native Great Britain against team USA. Strengthening his reputation as an excellent golfer with top performances in regional and amateur events, Rudisill has teamed with Old Dominion Hall of Fame golfer J.P. Leigh to win over 50 tournaments in the area. A native of Gastonia, NC, Rudisill is a 1960 graduate of North Carolina State University where he was a member of the golf team.

Rudisill earned his masters degree from the University of North Carolina and moved to Hampton Roads and the Tidewater Community College System in 1968. He was awarded a doctorate in Curriculum/ Instruction from the University of Florida in 1972 and joined the Old Dominion faculty that same year. He retired from teaching last May.

NEW OLD DOMINION GOLF COURSE

The new nine whole golf course is expected to open in the late Spring of 2005.

The course is located on the west side of campus and several holes overlook the Elizabeth River.

It will have a clubhouse and locker rooms that will house both ODU men's and women's programs.

THE ANNUAL SPIVEY RENTALS SCHOLARSHIP GOLF CLASSIC

The Spivey Rental's Scholarship Golf Classic has been an important part of Old Dominion University Golf for 22 years. Proceeds from this tournament benefit the University's Intercollegiate Foundation golf scholarship fund. The tournament is a two-man, three-day best ball event (Chapman, Florida, and best ball competition). Over 200 golfers compete each June in the tournament and the event annually raises about $35,000 for golf scholarships at Old Dominion.

MONARCHS IN THE PROS

A number of Monarch golfers have participated on various professional tours. Jim McGovern ('88), a two-time All-Sun Belt performer captured his first PGA title with a sudden death victory over John Huston in the 1993 Houston Open. He won the title on the second hole of the playoff, sinking a 25-foot birdie put. His previous best was a fourth in the 1992 St. Jude's Classic. J.P. Leigh won the 1983 Eastern Amateur and in 1990 Jon Hurst won the same event. Joe Daley ('83) finished tied for 12th in the Greater Hartford Open in 1999. It was his best finish in his first year on the PGA tour. Both golfers competed in the U.S. Open in 2000.

 Hall of FAME

Old Dominion University's All-American golfer J.P. Leigh was inducted into the Old Dominion University Sports Hall of Fame in April of 1984. Leigh's accomplishments at Old Dominion include a fifth place finish in the NCAA Division II National Championships in 1969 and placing among the top 25 golfers in Division I play that same year.

A state champion twice while attending Churchland High School in Portsmouth, he won over 100 junior tournaments before accepting a scholarship at the University of Houston. Leigh left Houston and returned home to Old Dominion, where he became a three-time Mason Dixon Conference Champion.

A professional from 1969-74, he has won over 70 tournaments since regaining his amateur status in 1977. Chief among those wins was the 1983 Eastern Amateur Championship.

Leigh serves as the chairman of the Spivey Rentals Scholarship Golf Tournament which is held annually at Sleepy Hole Golf Course in Suffolk.

Old Dominion University's first Division I All-American in golf. Hurst took sixth in the NCAA Regionals at Yale in 1991 and earned All-American honors at the NCAA National Championships, at Monterey, Calif.

As a senior, the Dumfries, Va. native won five Collegiate tournaments and posted two seconds and one third in 12 regular season matches. He compiled a 72.5 stroke average in 1990-91 and was named the 1991 Virginia Collegiate Golfer of the Year.
