QUOTING LSU'S BILL ARNSPARGER

"What can you say? It was a very hard-fought game, as we expected it to be. Alabama did a good job on defense. They really fought and hung in there. And Mike Shula, he never quit. He hung in there, too.

Concerning a possible Sugar Bowl bid?

"I guess we are in pretty good position as far as that goes, but I really don't think about things like that. You have to take them one at a time. I don't expect anything (answering question about possible tie with Florida for league crown). I know better than to do that.

"We are really in bad shape, physically, on defense. We're really banged up, but the kids played tough to the very end. I'm proud of our entire football team. We made some mistakes, but we hung in there. We fought, scratched and clawed all the way. I am very proud of this football team."
