Fresh off a victory over Oklahoma State, the Nebraska soccer team looks to keep its unbeaten home streak intact (6-0-1) as the Huskers host Baylor and Oklahoma in a pair of Big 12 Conference matches this weekend at the Nebraska Soccer Field.

The Huskers (7-2-3, 1-1-1 Big 12) are looking to make a move in the league standings as they will square off against the Bears on Friday at 4 p.m., before facing the Sooners on Sunday at 1 p.m.

Nebraska has been very strong at home, posting 6-0-1 mark this season. The only non-victory was a 1-1 tie against No. 19 Arizona State on Sept. 20. Last weekend, the Huskers defeated Green Bay
(3-1) and Oklahoma State (2-0) in the beginning portion of a four-game homestand that concludes this week.

Friday's game is UNL Faculty & Staff Appreciation Day as the first 100 faculty and staff members will receive free admission and a bag of Colby Ridge popcorn.

Sunday is free T-shirt day, as the NU Marketing Department will give out Husker soccer T-shirts to the first 150 fans.

Live stats (Huskers.com) and live audio (krnu.unl.edu) will be available for both games.

Husker History vs. Baylor

Nebraska leads the all-time series against Baylor, 12-5-0, including wins in 10 of the first 11 meetings. The Bears have been tougher in recent years, defeating the Huskers four times in the past six matchups and winning the last two contests in 2007 and 2008.

Nebraska entered last year's game at Baylor riding a five-game winning streak, but a goal by Bethany Johnston in the fourth minute was all the Bears needed en route to a 1-0 victory. The Huskers had a definite advantage in shots (24-7), but were unable to find the back of the net. Nebraska is 70-32-1 all-time against Big 12 South Division opponents.

Scouting the Baylor Bears
Baylor (5-3-3, 1-2-1) handed Colorado its first conference loss of the season with a 2-1 victory in Waco last weekend to gain its first Big 12 win of the season. The Bears also suffered 1-0 defeats to Texas A&M and Texas Tech, while tying Texas in a scoreless double-overtime bout after a solid 4-1-2 record in the non-conference season.

Baylor’s success has been based on its defense, where the Bears have produced five shutouts and allowed just seven goals (0.64 goals per game), the best average in the Big 12 Conference. Senior goalkeeper Gianna Quintana, who assisted on Baylor’s game-winning goal against the Huskers last season, ranks No. 1 in the league in save percentage (.844) and goals-against average (0.59).

Junior midfielder Lotto Smith leads the Bears in scoring with four goals, while freshman forward Hannah Gilmore has three goals and three assists to tie Smith for the team-lead with nine points each. A pair of bench players led Baylor’s victory over Colorado, as the Bears got second-half goals from freshman defender Lisa Slivinski and sophomore midfielder Christine Clark to down the Buffs.

Head coach Marci Jobson is in her second season at Baylor after leading the squad to a 5-10-3 record in 2008. The SMU graduate has previously spent three years at Northern Illinois.

Husker History vs. Oklahoma
Nebraska has historically dominated Oklahoma with an 11-2 advantage in the all-time series, including four straight victories. The Huskers defeated the Sooners last year in Norman, 1-0, on a game-winning header from Carly Peetz in the 71st minute.

Oklahoma’s last win over Nebraska came in 2004, while its last victory in Lincoln happened in 2000 to account for the two Sooners wins in the series. The Huskers have shut out Oklahoma eight times in 13 matchups, including 1-0 the past three seasons.

Scouting the Oklahoma Sooners
Oklahoma (6-6-1, 1-3-0) won its first four games of the season, but has lost six of its last eight, including back-to-back losses at Colorado and Texas Tech. Prior to last weekend’s road setbacks, the Sooners upset No. 13 Texas A&M (3-2) in Norman on Sept. 27.

Junior forward Whitney Palmer is responsible for more than half of her team’s scoring this season, as she has 12 of Oklahoma’s 22 goals in 2009. Her individual total is second in the Big 12 Conference (behind NU’s Morgan Marlborough), while no other Sooner has more than two goals. Palmer has five goals in the first four conference games after she was named second-team All-Big 12 in 2008.

Freshman goalkeeper Kelsey Devonshire has started all 13 games in the net and leads the league in saves (10, 4.82 per game). However, she is ninth in save percentage (.707) and has given up 1.74 goals 2009 NEBRASKA ROSTER

John Walker
- 16th Year
- 232-88-20 Record
- 14th in winning pct. for active D-I coaches
- Current Canadian National Team Staff Coach
- Only head coach in Nebraska soccer history

In his 16th year at the helm for the Huskers, Walker has produced the 14th-best career winning percentage among active Division I women's soccer coaches at .712 (225-86-17) at the start of the 2009 season. He also ranks 14th for all-time coaches and 20th among active Division I women's soccer coaches in victories with 225.

Under Walker, The Huskers have become perennial Big 12 Conference and national title contenders. NU has posted at least 10 victories every season in the history of the program. The Huskers have made NCAA Sweet 16 appearances in eight of the last 12 years, including two trips to the Elite Eight. They have won three Big 12 regular-season crowns and five Big 12 Tournament titles. NU swept both conference titles in 1996, 1999 and 2000.

Marlborough Among Nation’s Best in 2009
Freshman Morgan Marlborough has only been in a Husker uniform for seven weeks, but is already making a name as one of the best in NU soccer history.

For the fourth straight week, the Lee’s Summit, Mo., native is the NCAA leader in women’s college soccer in numerous offensive categories, including goals (16), goals per game (1.333), points (36) and points per game (3.00). Marlborough had one goal in last Friday’s game against Green Bay to put her in a tie for the ninth-most single-season goals in school history.

Nebraska’s matchup against Oklahoma on Sunday will put two of the nation’s top goal scorers head-to-head, as the Sooners’ Whitney Palmer is tied for second nationally with 12 goals (also Stanford’s Kelley O’Hara).

Marlborough was voted Big 12 Offensive Player and Newcomer of the Week on Sept. 15 after she turned in six goals and two assists in wins over North Dakota (Sept. 11) and Akron (Sept. 13), including four goals against the Zips to tie the single-game school record. It marked just the third time in Big 12 history that a player has earned two awards in the same week.

Aside from holding four nation-best marks, Marlborough is also the Big 12 leader in shots per game (4.83 pg), second in game-winning goals (3) and tied for seventh in assists (4). Her four-goal performance against Akron is the tied for the best single-game performance in the Big 12 Conference this season. Colorado’s Nikki Marshall matched Marlborough’s four-goal game in the Buffs’ 5-1 win over Oklahoma last Friday.

Marlborough has scored in all but three games this season (vs. Lehigh, at Colorado, vs. Oklahoma State) and has five multiple-goal games.

Huskers Rank Among Best Scoring Offenses in the Nation
Entering the final month of the regular season, Nebraska is ranked No. 2 in the nation in goals (44) and goals per game (3.67). Those marks lead the Big 12 Conference by a wide margin, as Texas Tech is second with 33 goals for an average of 2.54 per contest.

The Huskers have put up 35 goals in seven home games to break the Nebraska Soccer Field season record of 26 set in both 2005 and 2006.
Game Notes

For Immediate Release: Oct. 6, 2009

Week 8 - Baylor/Oklahoma

On Sept. 27, NU scored three goals in the first half at Texas Tech to mark the most first-half goals in a Big 12 game by the Huskers since Oct. 30, 2005 (also at Texas Tech). Nebraska’s nine goals in a 9-0 victory over South Dakota on Sept. 18 is the best single-game total in the Big 12 this season.

N Powell Coming on Strong in Conference Play
Nebraska’s leading goal scorer the past two seasons looks to have found her offensive rhythm again, as senior Shay Powell has scored in the Huskers’ last two Big 12 games.

Powell produced just one goal in Nebraska’s first nine contests, but has increased her offensive production to reach the double-digit plateau on three goals and four assists (10 points). She had one of the biggest goals of the season last Sunday against Oklahoma State, as she knocked in the game-winner in the 10th minute.

Powell was the Huskers’ leading scorer in 2007 (11 points) and 2008 (19 points).

N Thomas Continues to Score, Surpasses Freshman Totals
Sophomore Molly Thomas turned in a career-best two-goal, two-assist game in Nebraska’s 9-0 win against South Dakota on Sept. 18. Those numbers upped her season totals to six goals and three assists (15 points) to surpass her season numbers from 2008, when she finished the year with five goals and one assist. Thomas is tied for fifth in the Big 12 Conference in points.

N Peetz, Caniglia Head Down Final Stretch
Senior defenders Carly Peetz and Anna Caniglia are bidding to end their collegiate careers having started every single game as a Husker. Now in their fourth seasons, the duo had each started all 71 games from 2006 to 2009. The seniors are primary reasons NU has held opponents to 1.17 goals per game, including a big shutout over Oklahoma State last Sunday.

Perhaps even more impressive has been the offensive production. Peetz has a career-high eight points this season, including one of the biggest goals of her career against the Cowgirls, as Peetz headed in a free kick from Caniglia to wrap up Nebraska’s 2-0 victory. Caniglia and sophomore teammate Blair Slapper are tied for fifth in the Big 12 with five assists each, but Caniglia has the highest total among defenders.

N Freshmen See Playing Time in First Year with Huskers
Freshman Jordan Jackson has played in all 12 games this season, scoring three goals on 25 shots, while also tallying one assist. Freshman Bri Exstrom saw her first game action of the 2009 season against South Dakota on Sept. 18 and made the most of her opportunity by notching a goal in the 82nd minute. The freshman class scored five goals in the 9-0 win over the Coyotes and have 20 as a unit.

Senior Shay Powell has scored in the Huskers’ last two Big 12 games.

N Review: Huskers Knock Off Defending Big 12 Champs, 2-0
Nebraska used one of its most complete-game efforts of the season to earn its first Big 12 victory with a 2-0 win over Oklahoma State on Oct. 4 at the Nebraska Soccer Field.

Shay Powell put the Huskers on the scoreboard quickly, when her shot from 10 yards away hit the crossbar and bounced over the line to put Nebraska on top, 1-0, at the 10:24 mark of the first half. Nebraska held OSU to two shots in the first half and a 1-0 lead into halftime that it would not relinquish behind a strong effort in the net from goalkeeper Jesica Mills. The Houston, Texas native played one of the best games of her career to keep a talented Cowgirl squad scoreless for just the third time this season.

The NU defense aided Mills’ effort by holding OSU to eight total shots, and was responsible for the Huskers’ second goal of the afternoon as Carly Peetz and Anna Caniglia teamed up to ensure Nebraska would go home with its first Big 12 win of the season.

Just two minutes after Mills’ diving save, Caniglia took a free kick from 30 yards out near the Husker bench, which Peetz headed into the top-right corner of the net to give Nebraska an important insurance goal en route to its sixth home victory of the year and third shutout in 2009.

N Up Next: Huskers Take on the Lone Star State
Nebraska will see another pair of Big 12 South opponents next weekend, as the Huskers travel to Texas on Friday, Oct. 16 (7 p.m.) and then host Texas A&M on Sunday, Oct. 18 at the Nebraska Soccer Field (1 p.m.). The Huskers upset No. 8 Texas last year in Lincoln, 1-0, but lost to No. 7 Texas A&M, 2-0, in College Station.

Notes: The Huskers began the 2009 season on a strong note Aug. 22, defeating Northern Colorado, 3-0, at Jackson Stadium in Greeley, Colo.

It was only the third time in school history that the Huskers have opened the season on the road (4-0 win at Minnesota in 2000; 4-3 loss at Northwestern in 2008), but Nebraska (1-0-0) outshot Northern Colorado (0-1-0) and posted its first shutout since last October. The Huskers used strong performances from two of its youngsters, as sophomore Molly Thomas recorded a pair of goals, while freshman Morgan Marlborough also scored one goal and added an assist in her Husker debut.

Marlborough accounted for the game-winning score, as she found the net on a rebound just 16 seconds before halftime. Thomas took advantage of a rebound as well, as she made it a 2-0 lead just two minutes later. Thomas added her second goal of the evening with 16 minutes remaining, receiving a pass from Marlborough for the final margin.

Marlborough is coming off a solid preseason in which she was one of Nebraska's most impressive freshmen, while Thomas is building on a strong first season in which she was named to the Big 12 All-Newcomer Team.

Junior transfer Tara Macdonald was superb in the net for NU, playing all 90 minutes at goalkeeper and stopping eight shots for her first shutout as a Husker. The victory improved head coach John Walker's record to 9-5-2 in season openers.

Notes: Nebraska took 11 shots on goal and junior Colleen Goetzmann tallied her first score of the season, but the Husker soccer team couldn’t overcome an early deficit as Nebraska dropped a 3-1 decision to Lehigh Aug. 28 at the Villanova Classic.

Goetzmann’s goal came in the 66th-minute when she found the bottom left corner of the net on an assist from freshman Jordan Jackson. The goal cut a 2-0 Mountain Hawk lead in half, but Lehigh was able to hold off Nebraska following an insurance score with just over four minutes remaining in the game.

Nebraska took 19 shots overall, but had a tough time getting past Lehigh goalkeeper Lauren Mains, who played all 90 minutes and stopped 10 of the 11 shots Nebraska fired on goal. Senior defender Anna Caniglia had a team-high four shots for the Huskers, while freshman Morgan Marlborough led NU in shots on goal with three.

Lehigh got on the board 10 minutes into the game when Natalie Hojnacki converted from the left side of the box off a pass from Jana Basubas. Nebraska controlled the ball in the first half, as it outshot Lehigh, 9-3, but still went into the locker room trailing 1-0.

The Mountain Hawks struck quickly again in the second half, as Liz Carlos used a header on a rebound in the 54th minute to give Lehigh a 2-0 lead. Following Goetzmann’s goal to make it a 2-1 contest, Lehigh’s Genna Pepe put the game away with 4:36 remaining on a goal from the middle of the box.

Nebraska’s 11 shots on goal were the most in a game in nearly two years, when the Huskers also had 11 in a 2-1 win over Stephen F. Austin on Sept. 21, 2008. Goetzmann’s goal was the second of her career as she also scored in Nebraska’s 3-1 win against Iowa State last season.

Notes: Nebraska carried a one-goal lead into the final minute, but the Huskers gave up a score with nine seconds remaining in regulation as they battled to a 2-2 double overtime tie against Villanova on Aug. 30 in Villanova, Pa.

Senior defenders Carly Peetz and Anna Caniglia teamed up for what looked to be the game-winning score in the 77th minute, when Caniglia sent a free kick from the right sideline directly in front of the goalie box. Congestion ensued in front of the net, but Peetz was able to push the ball past Villanova goalkeeper Molly Williams to give the Huskers a 2-1 lead.

Villanova forward Katie Ryan then turned up the heat and took four shots in the final minutes, including one attempt in the 89th minute that slid near the post before Nebraska goalkeeper Tara Macdonald snagged the ball from crossing the goal line. Sixty-two seconds later, Ryan made good on her final opportunity when she chased down a long ball near the top of the penalty box and sent it over Macdonald’s head for the game-tying score.

Neither team was able to convert in the overtime periods, as both teams had ample opportunities to score with seven shots apiece in the extra sessions, including three shots on goal.

Nebraska trailed 1-0 at halftime before notching its first goal of the game in the 57th minute on a header by freshman Morgan Marlborough. The Lee’s Summit, Mo., native used a terrific pass from the corner from senior Shay Powell and headed the ball into the upper left side of the goal for her second score of the season.

Nebraska outshot Villanova, 26-25, marking the most shots by the Huskers in a road game since Oct. 12, 2007 in a 4-0 shutout at Lamar (44 shots).

In the net, Macdonald registered nine saves for Nebraska, while playing all 110 minutes.

Notes:
- Nebraska opened the home season in fine fashion on Friday, Sept. 4 as it ran past the Lamar Cardinals, 7-1, at the Nebraska Soccer Field. The Huskers played strong defense by limiting Lamar to just six total shots, while the offensive power came from senior Lauren Isenhower and freshman Morgan Marlborough, who each scored two goals.

- The Huskers' seven goals set a Nebraska Soccer Field record and also marked the most NU has scored in a game since the 2004 NCAA Sweet 16 squad had seven against Northern Colorado.

- Isenhower's scores broke the game open near the end of the first half as she found the net twice on assists from junior Michaella Fulmer within a span of five minutes to give the Huskers a 4-1 lead at the break.

- The Cardinals' lone goal came at the 34:30 mark of the first half after NU jumped out to an early 2-0 lead on scores from Marlborough and senior Shay Powell in the first 14 minutes of the contest. Marlborough added her second goal just 95 seconds into the second half on a penalty kick that beat Lamar goalkeeper Jennifer Gibbs on the right side of the net and increase the Husker lead to 5-1.

- The Huskers' final scores came from junior Colleen Goetzmann off a corner kick from senior Anna Caniglia, while Fulmer wrapped up the scoring by adding a goal with 24 seconds left when she scored in the box off a free kick from sophomore Blair Slapper.

- Marlborough finished the game with five points as she assisted on Powell's score, while Fulmer and Isenhower turned in four-point performances. Marlborough increased her team-leading goal total to four.

- The Huskers had 27 shots overall, including 15 on goal. Junior goalkeeper Tara Macdonald and Jessica Mills split time in net for NU, with Mills recording each of the Huskers' two saves.

Notes:
- The Huskers turned in another offensive outburst Sept. 11, scoring six goals in 10 attempts on net to defeat North Dakota, 6-1, at the Nebraska Soccer Field.

- Freshman Morgan Marlborough increased her team-leading goal total to six in the win, as she found the net twice today to lead Nebraska to its second straight victory. The Huskers' 13 goals in the last two games are the most in a two-game span since 2000.

- Nebraska put the game out of reach 10 minutes into the second half when the Huskers scored three goals in just over six minutes.

- Junior Colleen Goetzmann began the outburst when she scored on an assist from Marlborough (26:49) directly in front of the North Dakota goalkeeper.

- Freshman Jordan Jackson then used a deflection in the goal box to find the net (51:55), before Marlborough added her second and most impressive goal on a sliding cross shot from the left side of the penalty box (53:07).

- Marlborough's first goal came from the top of the penalty box with 18 minutes remaining in the first half to give NU a 2-0 lead before North Dakota's Rhaya Balon cut the margin in half seven minutes later. The Huskers' scoring barrage started on an own goal that deflected off a North Dakota player in front of the Fighting Sioux net just 4:24 into the game.

- For the second straight game, junior Michaella Fulmer added Nebraska's last goal (77:35) to produce the final score.

- The Huskers took 25 shots overall, while connecting on six of 10 shots on goal. The NU defense was strong again, limiting the Fighting Sioux to eight shots.

- Juniors Tara Macdonald and Jessica Mills split time in goal for the Huskers, as Macdonald played the first 59 minutes (4 saves, 1 goal allowed) before Mills shut out the Sioux for the remainder of the game, as NU's defense held North Dakota without a shot on goal with Mills at the back.

Notes:
- Freshman forward Morgan Marlborough tied the single-game school record with four goals as she led the Huskers to a 7-1 win over Akron Sept. 13 at the Nebraska Soccer Field.

- Marlborough was nearly unstoppable versus the Zips, scoring four times on six shots to match Kim Essenger (vs. Baylor; Nov. 7, 1997) and Meghan Anderson (vs. Oral Roberts; Sept. 3, 1999) for the most goals in a single game in Husker history. The Lee's Summit, Mo., native already ranks No. 6 on the Nebraska freshman all-time charts for goals and points in a season.

- Marlborough struck early and often on Sunday, as she scored her first goal just 3:25 into the contest when she flipped past the Akron goalkeeper at the top of the penalty box. The freshman added her second score following a corner kick midway through the first half, before accounting for both of Nebraska's goals to begin the final 45 minutes. Seniors Shay Powell and Lauren Isenhower assisted on the second-half goals as each sent the ball to Marlborough from the corner to help the Huskers mount a commanding 6-0 lead.

- Nebraska held a 4-0 halftime advantage after senior defender Carly Peetz cleaned up a loose ball in front of the net following a corner kick with 2:54 remaining.

- Sophomore forward Molly Thomas had an impressive outing as well, scoring two goals on six shots. A member of the 2008 Big 12 All-Newcomer team, Thomas gave Nebraska a 2-0 lead 6:12 minutes into the game when she took a pass from junior Brittany Goosen and fired a shot past the Akron goalkeeper from the right side of the penalty box.

- Thomas added a second score off another long assist when junior goalkeeper Jessica Mills sent a free kick to the top of the penalty box where Thomas beat the Zip goalkeeper for Nebraska's final goal of the game.

Notes
- Nebraska tied the school record for goals in a half as it scored seven times in the final 45 minutes to defeat South Dakota 9-0, on Sept. 18 at the Nebraska Soccer Field. The win was the fourth in a row for the Huskers.

- Nebraska upped its season goal total to 35, four more than the entire 2008 season. The Huskers entered the weekend as the nation’s third-best scoring team, featuring freshman Morgan Marlborough, who added to her NCAA-leading goal total with two scores.

- Marlborough was one of three Huskers with a multi-score game, as sophomore Molly Thomas and freshman Jordan Jackson also registered a pair of goals each.

- Thomas continued a spectacular start to her second season, adding two assists versus South Dakota to finish with six points in the contest. The Omaha, Neb., native now has 15 points (6 goals, 3 assists) to surpass her freshman total of 11. Jackson and Thomas were the driving force in the second half as they scored all their goals in Nebraska’s stretch of seven scores over the final 45 minutes.

- Junior Colleen Goetzmann gave Nebraska a 2-0 lead with 24:56 to go in the first half when senior Anna Caniglia contributed the first of two assists in the game to pull into a tie for the team lead with four on the season.

- Nebraska used a total team-effort to spread the margin in the second half, including a goal by junior Jaclyn White on a penalty kick to give the Huskers a 6-0 lead with 27:46 remaining.

- Husker freshmen scored five of Nebraska’s nine goals, as Bri Exstrom made the most of her first appearance of the season, scoring with 8:24 left off Caniglia’s cross into the penalty box.

- South Dakota attempted just four shots, including one on goal to mark season-best totals for the Husker defense in both categories.

Notes
- Freshman Morgan Marlborough found the back of the net with 16 seconds remaining in the first half, but Nebraska was unable to hold off Arizona State as the Huskers and Sun Devils fought to a 1-1 double overtime tie at the Nebraska Soccer Field on Sept. 20.

- Marlborough’s NCAA-leading 13th goal of the season came after she gained control near the top left side of the penalty box and beat an ASU defender to score from 15 yards away. With 13 goals and 30 points this season, the freshman has already put up the highest season totals by a Husker in both categories since 2005.

- Nebraska held on to the 1-0 lead for the next 36 minutes behind solid goalkeeping by junior Tara Macdonald. The Husker goalie played all 110 minutes and did not allow a goal until 14:06 to go in the game when Arizona State’s Taylor McCarter scored from 18 yards out two minutes later. Macdonald finished the game with seven saves, as the offensive production was greater than the final stats indicate.

- Although Nebraska finished with two shots on goal, the offensive production was greater than the final stats indicate. Following a corner kick just 14 minutes into the game, junior Anna White headed a shot off the right post, before Marlborough hit the left post from 18 yards out two minutes later. Arizona State outshot Nebraska 21-16 overall, with both teams registering three shots apiece in the overtime periods.

- Aside from the goal, the Huskers’ other shot on net came off the leg of junior midfielder Colleen Goetzmann with 2:42 remaining in the first half.

- The tie was the second overtime game of the season for the Huskers, as Nebraska also tied Villanova, 2-2, on Aug. 30.

Notes
- Nebraska outshot Colorado, 21-13, but the Buffaloes found some offensive punch in the second half to score the game-winning goal with 22 minutes remaining and drop the Huskers in their Big 12 Conference opener.

- The Huskers were in control offensively for the majority of the first half, outshooting Colorado, 11-5. Sophomore Molly Thomas had four shots in the first 45 minutes, including one attempt in the 36th minute that hit the cross bar, but Nebraska found itself in a scoreless game at halftime for the first time this season.

- Junior goalkeeper Tara Macdonald dealt with a more aggressive Buffalo offense in the second half, which took advantage of a rare scoring opportunity in the 68th minute. Macdonald was forced to come out of the goalie box to make a save, but was caught in cluster of players from both teams after she deflected the ball into the air. Colorado’s Kassidy Fitzpatrick gained control of the loose ball and fired a shot into the open net for the game’s only goal and eventually sent Nebraska to its first loss since Aug. 28.

- The Buffaloes took eight shots on goal to the Huskers’ five, led by a pair from junior Colleen Goetzmann. Thomas, sophomore Blair Slapper and freshman Morgan Marlborough also registered shots on net for Nebraska, which was held scoreless for the first time this season.

- Macdonald finished the game with seven saves.

Notes: Nebraska jumped out to a 3-1 halftime lead, but Texas Tech scored two second-half goals as the Huskers and Red Raiders battled to a 3-3 double-overtime tie in Lubbock, Texas, the highest scoring Big 12 Conference game since Nov. 5, 2008.

Freshman Morgan Marlborough led a strong offensive attack with two goals to move into a tie for 10th all-time on the Nebraska single-season scoring charts with 15 goals this year. Marlborough's efforts helped the Huskers to a 3-1 halftime lead, but the advantage disappeared quickly after the break as the Red Raiders scored twice in the first 12 minutes of the second half to produce the final 3-3 score.

Marlborough struck early when she knocked in a 25-yard shot off the left post just 1:40 into the game, before scoring her second goal at the 22:50 mark after she cleaned up a missed header and beat Texas Tech goalkeeper Erin Wikelius.

The Red Raiders cut the lead to 2-1 with five minutes remaining in the first half on Leanne Mihelich's first of the season. Nebraska's second goal of the game was scored in the 56th minute.

By leading by two, the Huskers were unable to slow down a high-paced game as Texas Tech midfielder Taylor Lylle found the net 35 seconds into the second half before Mihelich scored her second goal of the game in the 56th minute.

After a combined six goals in the first 56 minutes of the game, the two teams went scoreless over the last 64 minutes.

The Huskers' offensive attack was slowed down with only two shots on goal in the second half after taking six in the first 45 minutes. Nebraska outshot Texas Tech overall, 18-13.

Notes: Cold temperatures and strong winds swept through the Lincoln area on Oct. 2, but that did not slow the Huskers in their final non-conference game of the season, as Nebraska defeated Green Bay, 3-1, in the Nebraska Soccer Field.

Morgan Marlborough broke a scoreless game at the 32:28 mark with her nation-leading 16th goal of the season to put herself in a tie with Christine Latham (2002) for the ninth-most single-season goals in school history.

The Lee's Summit, Mo., native took a pass from Blair Slapper near the left side of the penalty box and fired a shot past Green Bay goalkeeper Maddie Drusch on the left side of the net to give Nebraska a 1-0 lead. Marlborough's goal also helped the Huskers find some offensive rhythm in the second half and a 1-0 lead into halftime that it would not relinquish behind a strong effort in the net from goalkeeper Jessica Mills. The Houston, Texas native played one of the best games of her career to keep a talented Cowgirl squad scoreless for just the third time this season.

Also a native of Lee's Summit, Mo., Fulmer was able to shield off a defender in the penalty box as she received a pass from Jaclyn White and scored from 15 yards out to become the fifth Husker to reach the three-goal plateau this season.

Following the break, defender Anna Caniglia cashed in on an offensive opportunity 4 1/2 minutes into the action, as she fielded an overpass on the left side of the net and easily knocked in Nebraska's third goal of the game. Caniglia and defender Carly Peetz both tallied two shots on goal Friday night in each starting their 70th consecutive game.

Jessica Mills started in the net for the Huskers, tallying three saves and allowing one goal to improve her season goals-allowed average to 1.17 per contest.

Nebraska entered the weekend as the nation's second-highest scoring team and now has 42 this season for an average of 3.82 goals per game. The victory over the Phoenix lifted NU to a final non-conference record of 6-1-2.

Notes: Nebraska used one of its most complete-game efforts of the season to earn its first Big 12 victory with a 2-0 win over Oklahoma State at the Nebraska Soccer Field.

The Huskers were a determined team in their Big 12 home opener after beginning conference play with a pair of road games, dropping a 1-0 battle at Colorado and fighting to a 3-3 tie at Texas Tech.

Shay Powell put the Huskers on the scoreboard quickly, when her shot from 10 yards away hit the crossbar and bounced over the line to put Nebraska on top, 1-0, at the 10:24 mark of the first half.

Nebraska held OSU to two shots in the first half and a 1-0 lead into halftime that it would not relinquish behind a strong effort in the net from goalkeeper Jessica Mills. The Houston, Texas native played one of the best games of her career to keep a talented Cowgirl squad scoreless for just the third time this season.

Oklahoma State nearly broke up Mills' shutout with 13 minutes remaining, but a Seira Strawser shot from 15 yards away was snagged by the Husker goalkeeper on the left side of the net for her most notable save of the game.

The NU defense aided Mills' effort by holding OSU to eight total shots, and was responsible for the Huskers' second goal of the afternoon as Carly Peetz and Anna Caniglia teamed up to ensure Nebraska would go home with its first Big 12 win of the season.

Just two minutes after Mills' diving save, Caniglia took a free kick from 30 yards out near the Husker bench, which Peetz headed into the top-right corner of the net to give Nebraska an important insurance goal en route to its sixth home victory of the year and third shutout in 2009.
