SOUTHERN UTAH WOMEN’S SOCCER FIGHTING ON AN OFF THE FIELD THIS WEEK
CEDAR CITY, Utah - Oct. 6 - Southern Utah women’s soccer will open its home conference slate when the Thunderbirds host the Western Illinois Fighting Leathernecks and the IUPUI Jaguars this weekend. However, it will be the game against IUPUI on Saturday that will mean more than just the play on the field as the team will host its third annual Breast Cancer Awareness game.

“This is an important week for us,” head coach Brian Stock said of the games. “The conference season is when you need to play some of your best soccer and we’ll expect that effort on the field. The game on Saturday is a special game for us and it always means a lot to our girls.”

The Thunderbirds will enter the matches having split its most recent road trip with a loss at IPFW and a victory over Oakland. The win marked the first time that Southern Utah had handed the Golden Grizzlies a loss, but the team will now turn its attention to the competition at hand.

Sophomore Riley Bassett leads the team with eight points on two goals and four assists this year. She leads the team in assists, but it is Makell Southworth that leads the team in goals with three so far this season. A total of 12 SUU athletes have recorded at least one point during the 2009 campaign.

Game time against Western Illinois is scheduled for 4:00 p.m. with kick-off for the game on Saturday slated for 2:00 p.m. Fans are invited to come by the athletic department of faces for coupons to Gandolfo’s Deli that will donate 20% of your purchase on Saturday towards breast cancer research.

LAST TIME AGAINST WIU - SOUTHERN UTAH REMAINS UNDEFEATED AGAINST WESTERN ILLINOIS IN CEDAR CITY WITH 3-2 VICTORY

CEDAR CITY, Utah - Sept. 25, 2008 - Southern Utah University ran its home winning streak against Western Illinois to 4-0-0 as the Thunderbirds posted a 3-2 victory over the Westerwinds on the soccer pitch Thursday evening. The win is the second straight for the T-Birds, moving their record to 2-5-0, while WIU drops to 3-3-2.

The scoring began for the Thunderbirds in the 7th minute when Shaley Ipson-Allen broke the all-time career points mark with a shot that passed in front of the goal at a sharp angle, but found the back of the net. Fellow senior Erica Berlin was credited with the assist.

Western Illinois tied the game in the 25th minute as Ashley Hoch took a Jennifer Green pass from the comer and blasted the ball into the goal. The 1-1 score would extend through the half.

Southern Utah broke through in early in the second half as Erin Marble recorded one of her two goals of the evening on a header. The ball was played in by Ipson-Allen, adding to her record-setting night.

Marble’s second goal, ultimately the game winner, came in the 76th minute as her strike from 22 yards bent into the top far post. Freshman Riley Bassett was credited with the assist.

Southern Utah just missed a fourth scoring opportunity on the ensuing kick-off as Kristen Frank’s shot from the center hash was fisted away from the top corner, resulting in a comer kick for the T-Birds.

SUU out shot Western Illinois 24-14 during the game with Fox playing a full 90 minutes in her first action in two weeks.

LAST TIME AGAINST IUPUI - THUNDERBIRDS OUTSHOOT JAGUARS, BUT FALL 1-0 ON THE ROAD

INDIANAPOLIS, Ind. - Oct. 17, 2008 - Southern Utah recorded 13 shots to the Jaguars nine, but it was one shot that found the back of the net in the second half that proved to be the difference as SUU fell to IUPUI 1-0 on Friday night. The loss drops the Thunderbirds to 4-8-0 (1-3-0 Summit) while IUPUI moves to 8-6-0 and 4-1-0 in The Summit League.

“This was a frustrating lost today,” head coach Brian Stock said. “We did a sound job of absorbing their early pressure, but we were victim of not putting away our chances today.”

Neither team broke through with their shots in the first half with SUU recording five cracks at the goal and IUPUI tallying six. The deadlock was finally broken early in the second half as the Jaguars’ Katrina McCrory redirected a Natalie Holland indirect kick into the net in the 58th minute.

The 1-0 lead remained despite eight shots by the Thunderbirds to IUPUI’s three throughout the final 45-minute half. Southern Utah had a pair of opportunities with back-to-back shots on goal in a matter of seconds, one in the 50th minute and the other in the 74th minute, but Jamie Farrell recorded five of her six saves during the night in the second half to keep SUU scoreless.

SCOUTING WESTERN ILLINOIS

Western Illinois will enter the game on Thursday afternoon with a 3-5-1 overall record and 0-1-0 mark in Summit League play. The Fighting Leathernecks are coming off its most recent result of a 2-0 loss at IUPUI.

WIU is led in scoring by J Ill Kevorkian with seven points on three goals and one assist this year. Kellie Julius is tied for the team lead in goals, matching Kevorkian’s three. Demmi Vance leads the team with three assists this year.

Meghan Tyk has tallied all but one of the Leathernecks’ results in goal this year, tallying 45 saves and a 1.12 goals against average.

Head coach Tony Guinn is in his third year at the helm of the WIU program, compiling an overall record of 27-16-4 over that time.

Southern Utah holds the all-time series lead over WIU with a 5-2-1 mark. The Thunderbirds have never dropped a game to the Leathernecks in Cedar City and captured a 3-2 victory over WIU at home in 2008.

SCOUTING IUPUI

IUPUI will enter the game on Saturday with a nine-game winning streak and a game with UMKC on Thursday night. The Jaguars are 9-2 overall this year with their only losses coming against Eastern Illinois and Valparaiso.

The Jags are also undefeated on the road (5-0-0) and are led in scoring by Megan Hock with 14 points on six goals and two assists. Lisa Thomas leads the team with four assists so far this year. In all, IUPUI has scored 21 goals this season, compared to the nine by its opponents.

Keeper Jamie Farrell has been the starter in goal for each of IUPUI’s games this year, tallying 41 saves and a 0.74 goals against average. Farrell has played more than 972 minutes in goal this year.

Head coach Chris Johnson is in his seventh season at the helm of the IUPUI program, helping the Jaguars to a school-record 13 wins and share of the regular season conference title last year.

IUPUI holds the all-time series lead over WIU with a 5-2-1 mark, including a 1-0 victory in Indianapolis in 2008.
Last Match - Southern Utah Snaps Skid Against Oakland with 4-2 Victory

ROCHESTER, Mich. - Oct. 4 - Southern Utah women's soccer snapped an 11-game losing streak against the Oakland University Golden Grizzlies with a 4-2 victory on Sunday afternoon. The win also snapped a three-game losing skid for the Thunderbirds as the team moved to 3-7-1 on the year and 1-1-0 in conference play, while Oakland dropped to 4-6-0 and 1-1-0 in the Summit League.

The Thunderbirds were able to build a 2-0 lead before intermission as Makell Southworth lit up the scoreboard first after collecting a Riley Bassett shot and redirecting the ball into the back of the net in the 26th minute. Southern Utah's second goal came just before the half (43:17) as Kristen Fronk scored on a set piece from the corner. Freshman Morgan Bridge was credited with the assist after serving the ball towards the box.

Oakland came out with a vengeance in the second half, scoring its first two goals in the frame at the 49:58 mark as SUU goalkeeper Charly Booth came off her line to challenge a shot and the ball was played just above her head. A little over 15 minutes later, Booth made a save to turn away OU's Leanne Formenko, but the Thunderbird defense couldn't clear the ball as the Grizzlies scored the equalizer, finding the top left corner of the goal.

Southern Utah didn't back down as the game progressed, tallying two goals of its own on only five shots during the final 45 minutes. Bassett's blast in the 78th minute proved to be the eventual game winner as the sophomore midfielder led the Thunderbirds with six shots on goal and defensive records in goals against average. Coach Stock's efforts in 2005 earned Conference Co-Coach of the Year honors.

Before coming to SUU, Coach Stock, 36, spent three seasons as the assistant women's soccer coach at Youngstown State, where he was also the director of athletic youth camps. During his tenure with the Penguins, he helped produce three all-Mid-Continent Conference selections, two all-Ohio players and 15 all-Mid-Con academic selections.

Coach Stock began his coaching career as an assistant men's soccer coach at Alma College, the University of Akron, from 1996-98 and helped lead the Zips to the Mid-American Conference title in 1997. While at Akron, he had the opportunity to work under one of the nation's top coaches in Ken Lolla, formerly the under-15 boys National Team coach. He was also active in coaching at the club level in both Akron and Youngstown.

Prior to beginning his coaching career, Coach Stock served as the Director of Soccer Programs for Athletics in Action Soccer Canada in Vancouver, British Colombia, from 1994 through 1996, and was responsible for directing youth camps, staff training, overseeing the operations of the semi-pro club and administration of international tours.

Stock earned two MAC Commissioners Awards for academic excellence during his playing career. Stock played for three seasons with the AIA Football Club, a semi-professional club in Vancouver, B.C., where he helped guide the team to a Pacific Coast Soccer League playoff berth in 1994. He was also named a PCSL all-star in 1996 and was rated as one of the league's top goalkeepers all three seasons.

Coach Stock hails from North Canton, Ohio, and is accredited with National and Advanced National Coaching Diplomas from the National Soccer Coaches Association of America. He also served as a head age group coach in the Nevada Olympic Development Program. Coach Stock is also the founder and director of Thunderbird Soccer Schools and is a coaching director for Utah Rush Soccer Club. He and his wife, Dannon, are the parents of two sons, Andrew (9) and Kaleb (7), and daughter Sarah (3).
