Southern Utah Women’s Soccer Continues on the Road This Weekend

CEDAR CITY, Utah - Oct. 21 - Southern Utah women’s soccer will continue its three-game road swing this weekend when the Thunderbirds travel to face North Dakota State and South Dakota State. The T-Birds will be looking to get back into the win column as the team is riding a three-game losing streak.

SUU can credit its recent streak to a lack of scoring as the Thunderbirds have been held scoreless over the same three-game stretch. The games have not been without effort as the T-Birds have recorded almost 20 shots a game. Southern Utah’s shot total (58) was also greater than the opposition (46), but the team was out scored 10-0.

Riley Bassett continues to lead the Thunderbirds on offense this year with eight points on two goals and four assists. Bassett currently ranks No. 4 in the Summit League in assists. Makell Southworth and Erin Marble lead the team in goals as each have recorded three this season. Southern Utah has 12 players this season that have recorded at least one point this season.

Game time in Fargo is scheduled for 3:00 p.m. (CT) with live stats available on www.suutbirds.com. The match on Sunday is scheduled to kick off at 1:00 p.m. (CT).

SCOUTING NORTH DAKOTA STATE

North Dakota State will enter the game on Friday afternoon with an overall record of 7-6-2 and 4-1-0 conference mark. The Bison split its results last weekend on the road with a victory at Western Illinois, but a loss at IUPUI.

Brooklyn Dyce leads the NDSU attack, having recorded ten points on four goals and two assists. Abby Stratton leads the team in assists with four.

Kalani Bertsch has started the majority of the minutes for the Bison in the net, recording more than 1239 minutes and 67 saves. Bertsch has allowed 19 goals during the year and carries a 1.38 goals against average.

Head coach Pete Cuadrado is entering his seventh season at the helm of the North Dakota State program. Overall, Cuadrado has compiled a coaching record of 63-51-10 record.

North Dakota State took a 2-0 victory in Fargo last season.

SCOUTING SOUTH DAKOTA STATE

South Dakota State will face UMKC on Friday night before hosting the Thunderbirds on Sunday afternoon. The Jackrabbits have put together a 7-6-2 overall mark this season and 4-2-0 record in Summit League play. SDSU have won five of its last seven games with the two losses coming in double overtime.

Kayla Braffett leads the team in scoring with 15 points, including a team-best five goals and five assists. Braffett ranks second in The Summit League in assists and in the top five in goals.

Daniella Pappas and Brienna Rogers have split time in goal for the Jacks with 708 and 715 minutes in goal, respectively. Pappas holds the slight edge with a 0.89 goals against average, but Rogers leads the team in wins with four.

Head coach Lang Wedemeyer has been at the top of SDSU program for nine years, leading the Jackrabbits to the 2008 Summit League championship.

South Dakota State claimed a 1-0 victory last season in Brookings.
Head Coach Brian Stock

Brian Stock is in his ninth season as Head Coach at SUU. He has led the Thunderbirds to the conference tournament in each of his seasons. In 2001, during the first year of the program, the team went 1-12-2, but has improved each year since then. The Thunderbirds have reached the conference tournament in each of the last five seasons and have won a total of 12 games in those years.

Coach Stock is a native of North Canton, Ohio, and graduated from The University of Akron in 1995, where he earned a degree in accounting. He also earned a master's degree in business administration from Akron in 1998.

Coach Stock has been active in the community, serving as the head coach of the Thunderbirds Youth Soccer Camp and the director of athletic youth camps. He has also served as a head age group coach in the Nevada Olympic Development Program. Coach Stock is also the founder and director of Thunderbird Soccer Schools.

Coach Stock has had a successful coaching career, having led the Thunderbirds to a total of 12 wins in his nine seasons. The team has also advanced to the conference tournament in each of the last five seasons and has won a total of 12 games in those years.

In 2005, Coach Stock was named Conference Coach of the Year, and the team earned a total of 12 wins in that season. The Thunderbirds also set and reset records in 2005 and 2006, including the most goals scored in a single season. The team has also set and reset records in shots and shots on goal in both seasons.

Coach Stock has also been recognized for his academic achievements. He graduated Summa Cum Laude in accounting at Akron in 1995, and earned a master's degree in business administration from Akron in 1998. He has also been named a PCSL all-star in 1996 and was rated as one of the league's top goalkeepers all three seasons.

Coach Stock's efforts in 2005 earned Conference Co-Coach of the Year honors. The team scored another four goals during the second half to take the 7-0 victory. The team also put up the second-best total in school history with 23 goals, 18 assists and 64 points in 2007.

The Thunderbirds set and reset records in 2005 and 2006 as the team broke nearly every offensive mark in goals, assists, points, shots and shots on goal. Coach Stock's efforts in 2005 earned Conference Co-Coach of the Year honors. Before coming to SUU, Coach Stock, 36, spent three seasons as the assistant women's soccer coach at Youngstown State, where he was also the director of athletic youth camps. During his tenure with the Penguins, he helped produce two all-Mid-Continent Conference selections, two all-OHIO players and 15 all-Mid-Con academic selections.

Coach Stock began his coaching career as an assistant men's soccer coach at his alma mater, the University of Akron, from 1996-98 and helped lead the Zips to the Mid-American Conference title in 1997. While at Akron, he had the opportunity to work under one of the nation's top coaches in Ken LoGa, formerly the under-15 boys National Team coach. He was also active in coaching at the club level in both Akron and Youngstown.

Prior to beginning his coaching career, Coach Stock served as the Director of Soccer Programs for Athletics in Action Soccer Canada in Vancouver, British Columbia, from 1994 through 1996, and was responsible for directing youth camps, staff training, overseeing the operations of the semi-pro club and administration of international tours.

Stock earned two MAC Commissioners Awards for academic excellence during his playing career. Stock played for three seasons with the AIA Football Club, a semi-professional club in Vancouver, B.C., where he helped guide the team to a Pacific Coast Soccer League playoff berth in 1994. He was also named a PCSL all-star in 1996 and was rated as one of the league's top goalkeepers all three seasons.

Coach Stock hails from North Canton, Ohio, and is accredited with National and Advanced National Coaching Diplomas from the National Soccer Coaches Association of America. He also served as a head age group coach in the Nevada Olympic Development Program. Coach Stock is also the founder and director of Thunderbird Soccer Schools and is a coaching director for Utah Rush Soccer Club. He and his wife, Danan, are the parents of two sons, Andrew (9) and Kaleb (7), and daughter Sarah (3).
