ALL TIMES EASTERN AND SUBJECT TO CHANGE

Coming off a late rally to knock off Auburn on Wednesday night, 6-5, Georgia State plays host to East Tennessee State, Eastern Illinois and Temple in the seventh annual Panther Invitational this weekend.

Georgia State begins the tournament by meeting Temple at 12:15 p.m. on Saturday before facing off against Eastern Illinois at 4:45 p.m. On Sunday, the Panthers compete against East Tennessee State before playing one of the three teams for a second time in the consolation or championship game.

GSU is 1-1 against Eastern Illinois having beaten the other Panthers in the two teams’ last meeting in 2004, 1-0. The Panthers and ETSU have met on the field only once, a 6-0 GSU loss in 2005. The matchup with the Owls will be the first since 1989 where GSU lost a close one, 1-0.

Overall in the Panther Invitational GSU is 13-11, but 9-3 in the last three seasons.

The Panthers enter the weekend on a high note after rallying in the seventh inning on Wednesday to knock off Auburn in eight. Coming off the bench, junior Tiffany Bess hit a two-run home run to begin the scoring rally before freshman Whitney Phillips knocked the second of her two triples on the day to tie the game and send it to extra innings. Senior Rachel Cunningham bunted in junior Lauren Jones to win the game for the Panthers.

Admission to the two-day tournament is only $5 a day. Fans not able to check out the contests can follow all games via LiveStats. For complete coverage of the Panther Invitational stay connected to GeorgiaStateSports.com.

FRESHMEN MAKE IMMEDIATE IMPACT

Through only one game this season the class of 2013 has shown they will be key assets to the squad for years to come. All five freshmen played in and contributed in the Panthers 6-5 win over Auburn. Left fielder Whitney Phillips was 2-for-3 in the game with two triples and three RBI. Pitcher McCall Langford picked up the win after pitching two innings and allowing only one run on three hits. Right fielder Audrey Mason and third baseman Paige Nowacki both earned starts while pinch runner Carrie Williams scored a key run in the seventh inning.

PLAYING TO THE END

Last season Georgia State had 12 of its 50 games decided by one run and played in five extra-inning games. If one game is any indication, this season may feature more of the same as the season-opening game against Auburn was decided by a single run and lasted eight innings.

BESS MAKING THE MOST OF HER OPPORTUNITY

Junior Tiffany Bess didn’t start the game against Auburn but made her presence known when she came in during the seventh inning to pinch hit. The Watkinsville, Ga., native promptly bashed a two-run home run that ignited the GSU rally. In the next inning, while playing left field, Bess tossed out a runner at home plate to preserve the tied ball game.

RAIN, RAIN, GO AWAY

The 2010 Georgia State First Pitch Classic that was scheduled for Feb. 13-14 was canceled due to snowstorms that moved through the area on the 12th. Both Army and Saint Louis could not find flights that would land in Atlanta and efforts to play a doubleheader with Western Carolina on Sunday were for not as the weather prevented the area from being playable. It was the first time in six years of hosting the First Pitch Classic that the entire tournament had to be canceled due to weather.

CLOSING IN ON RECORDS

Georgia State seniors Rachel Cunningham, Danielle Roddy and Lily Skelton are closing in on the top five of several school career records. Cunningham is just seven RBI and six doubles away from breaking into the top five, while Skelton is two home runs away from the fifth spot for career HRs. Roddy, who already holds the school record for career walks, could be at the top or near the top of several school records including batting average, at-bats, runs, hits and doubles.

HOME SWEET HOME

Despite the First Pitch Classic cancelation, Georgia State plays a remarkable 28 home games at Panthersville this season and 37 of its 52 games inside the Atlanta area. The Panthers will only leave the state of Georgia this year for trips to UNC Wilmington (Wilmington, N.C.), Furman (Greenville, S.C.), Delaware (Newark, Del.) and George Mason (Fairfax, Va.)

JOINING THE SQUAD

Georgia State welcomes six new members to the Panthers’ squad this season. Freshmen McCall Langford (P), Audrey Mason (OF), Paige Nowacki (3B), Whitney Phillips (OF) and Carrie Williams (OF) and Virginia Tech transfer Heather Lowry (P) all will see their first action in GSU blue and white this spring.
Head Coach Bob Heck

23RD SEASON (658-560-2)

Georgia State's living legend of softball, Bob Heck, took the program from slow-pitch to fast-pitch status 25 years ago and has continued the growth pattern ever since. When the normal called for two years to take a program into NCAA fast-pitch, Bob Heck said he could do it in one. When Georgia State moved to the Colonial Athletic Association in 2005-06 and some sports needed time to grow, Bob Heck stepped up to the challenge and won the regular-season title in his first year and advanced to the tournament championship game.

Heck enters the 2010 season with 1,218 games coached in 22 seasons as the head coach at Georgia State. With 658 career victories, he ranks among the nation’s active leaders. Heck has earned Coach of the Year honors in both the Atlantic Sun and the CAA. He has coached six conference champions and one NCAA tournament team. Heck has reached seven other conference championship games.

During his career at State, Heck has had 48 student-athletes earn first team all-conference recognition and 30 more earn second team honors, while six have received All-Freshmen honors. Five conference players of the year, five conference rookies of the year (including a streak of four straight), one pitcher of the year, two scholar-athletes of the year and one CAA 25th Anniversary Team member also dot coach Heck’s resume.

Prior to beginning the school’s fast-pitch program in 1985 Heck had a long and successful career as a national bank examiner and as the Vice President of the Atlanta Federal Reserve, with whom he retired in 1991. Heck also served our country in World War II as a member of the U.S. Navy before graduating from the University of Georgia in 1951.

Around the Bases

SIGNED FOR 2011

Four new Panthers have already signed on for next softball season. Incoming freshmen include Jessica Clifton (Locust Grove, Ga.), Megan Kildahl (Shadydale, Ga.), Kaitlyn Medlam (Bethlehem, Ga.) and Madeleine Stanton (Alpharetta, Ga.)

LEADERS ON THE FIELD

This year’s co-captains are senior Lauren Fetters (OF) and junior Lauren Jones (1B). Fetters has made a career of pinch running while Jones is entering her second year of starting at first base after starting at center field as a freshman.

A PROUD TRADITION

In its softball history, Georgia State boasts six conference championships, five conference Player of the Year awards, five conference Rookie of the Year awards, one conference Pitcher of the Year award, two conference Coach of the Year awards, two conference Scholar-Athlete of the Year awards, 94 All-Conference honorees and over 750 wins.

RETURNING FROM INJURY

When junior Heather Lowry stepped into the circle in the Auburn game, it marked the end of a long road to recovery. Before her junior season with Virginia Tech, the Riverdale, Ga., native underwent Tommy John surgery on her elbow. Lowry pitched an inning and two-thirds in her debut for the Panthers.

A LITTLE LONGER TREK FOR THE HOLIDAYS

Sophomore Cassie Boese (Middlebury, Ind.) is the only Panther that is not from the state of Georgia.

CAA 25TH ANNIVERSARY TEAM

GSU had one former Panther great named to the CAA 25th Anniversary Team. Former pitcher Elizabeth Hyman (2005-06) earned a spot on the 25-member squad after producing a stellar 2006 season that included CAA Pitcher of the Year honors and a spot on the All-CAA first team. On the season Hyman was 18-11 with a 2.17 ERA and 260 strikeouts.

GSU LOOKS FOR FIVE IN A ROW

Georgia State currently has a string of four-straight CAA Rookie of the Year award winners. Jackie Jaegele first won the award in 2006 followed by Danielle Roddy (2007), Catherine Lee (2008) and Alana Thomas (2009).

REAL STUDENT-ATHLETES

The Georgia State softball team produced another solid semester in the classroom during the fall recording an overall team GPA of 3.25. Thirteen student-athletes notched GPA’s above a 3.2 including three with perfect 4.0 GPA’s. Seniors Lauren Fetters (4.0) and Elizabeth Thomas (4.0) and sophomore Cassie Boese (4.06) each earned a spot on the President’s List.
