All-time Series.....UNC leads 5-4

CAROLINA TRAVELS TO PITT FOR THREE

No. 3 North Carolina returns to Atlantic Coast Conference play Friday when the Tar Heels visit Pittsburgh at 6 p.m. for the first of three at Cost Field. Carolina is 29-8 and 14-4 in league competition after taking two of three from NC State last weekend in Chapel Hill. Pitt is 16-18 and 7-11 in the ACC after dropping two of three at home to Miami last weekend.

NORTH CAROLINA-PITTSBURGH SERIES HISTORY

- Carolina is 5-4 all-time against Pittsburgh, with all nine games coming in the last three seasons.
- Friday begins just the fourth series between Carolina and Pitt in the two programs' collective history. The two schools had never met in baseball prior to the 2014 season, Pitt's first in the ACC.
- UNC took two of three in Chapel Hill last season, the ACC opener for both teams. Carolina won 14-2 and 4-0 before Pitt took the finale 5-0.
- Pitt scored a series win over the Tar Heels the last time the two programs met in Pittsburgh. The Panthers won a slugfest 12-9 in the opener before Carolina took the middle game 3-1. Pitt secured the series win with a 3-2 victory in 10 innings in the Sunday finale.
- Carolina took two of three in 2014 in Chapel Hill. The Tar Heels took both games of a doubleheader from the Panthers before Pitt won the series finale 6-4.

QUICK HITS

- Carolina ranks first in the ACC and fourth nationally in pitching with a staff ERA of 2.60.
- With two wins against NC State over the weekend, UNC has won its first six ACC series for the first time the 2013 squad claimed seven straight series victories to open conference play.
- The Tar Heels established a new school record for runs in a three-game ACC series by scoring 48 times in the sweep at BC. The previous mark was 45 at Duke in 2002. The 20-5 win over South Carolina pushed the four-game total to 68 runs, the most over four games since 1987.
- UNC started ACC play with series wins over divisional foes Virginia, Georgia Tech and Miami. This marks the first time the Tar Heels have won series against those three in the same season since 2009.

- The Tar Heels swept Florida State for the second time in program history and the first time ever in Tallahassee.
- Redshirt freshman closer Josh Hiatt has 10 saves, third in the ACC and eighth-most nationally. Hiatt is already tied for eighth on the UNC single-season saves list.
- Junior J.B. Bukauskas ranks in the top 10 nationally in strikeouts (sixth, 81) and hits allowed per nine innings (eighth, 4.97). He was named to the D1Baseball and Rawlings/Perfect Game Midseason All-America first teams, earning Midseason Top Pitcher honors from D1Baseball.
- Freshman Gianluca Dalatri leads the ACC in innings pitched with 60.1 in nine starts, an average of almost seven innings per outing.
- Carolina allowed five runs or fewer in each of the first 23 games of the 2017 season. That was the longest such streak in 106 seasons. The Tar Heels went 25 straight without allowing more than five across the 1910 and 1911 campaigns.
- Mike Fox recorded his 800th win at Carolina on Feb. 19 against Kentucky. He is UNC's all-time winningest coach and has over 1,300 total wins in his 34 year career.

BUKAUSKAS, WARMOTH NAMED TO GOLDEN SPIKES AWARD MIDSEASON WATCH LIST

- USA Baseball released its 40-player midseason Golden Spikes Award watch list recently, and junior standouts J.B. Bukauskas and Logan Warmoth were among those selected.
- The midseason watch list features 40 of the nation's top amateur players from the college ranks. The Golden Spikes Award Advisory Board will continue to maintain a rolling list of athletes, allowing players to play themselves into consideration for the award before announcing the semifinalists on May 31.
- Bukauskas has been one of the nation's best pitchers in 2017. The right-hander from Ashburn, Virginia, is 6-0 with a 1.40 ERA in nine starts. He has struck out 81 batters and walked just 15 while limiting opponents to a .163 batting average.
- Warmoth has emerged as an elite shortstop in his third season as a Tar Heel. A native of Orlando, Florida, Warmoth leads Carolina in batting (.355), on-base percentage (.436), slugging (.581), home runs (7), doubles (10), hits (55), runs (38) and stolen bases (15).
- Carolina is one of six schools with two players on the list, joining Auburn, LSU, Oregon State, Texas and Virginia.

WARMOTH PICKING UP WHERE HE LEFT OFF

- After having his 41-game streak of reaching base snapped at Florida State on April 1, junior shortstop Logan Warmoth got right back to work with a three-hit day in the Sunday win at FSU. He has currently reached in 10 straight games.
- Warmoth is hitting a team-best .355 in 2017 with a .436 OBP and a .581 SLG% after posting a slash line of .466/.528/.724 over the final 15 games of last season. He also leads the team with 19 extra-base hits, including a career-best seven home runs.

TAR HEELS JUMPING ON OPPONENTS EARLY

- Through 37 games, the 2017 Tar Heels are 29-8 and have outscored opponents by 132 runs (257-125).
- Carolina has been especially potent early in games, outscoring foes 95-39 in the first three innings and scoring first in 25 of 37 contests.

BUKAUSKAS REACHES STRIKEOUT MILESTONE

- With a first-inning strikeout on March 3 vs. Long Beach State, junior J.B. Bukauskas reached 200 strikeouts for his UNC career.
- After striking out six against NC State on April 14, Bukauskas now has 259 career Ks, just 10 shy of Ryan Snare for 10th in UNC career history. For the season, he currently ranks sixth nationally in total strikeouts with 81.
- Bukauskas ranked third nationally in strikeouts per nine innings as a sophomore and entered the season as the top returner in the category.
- The Ashburn, Virginia, right-hander tallied 111 strikeouts as a sophomore, the 10th-most strikeouts in a single season in Carolina history. He was just the fourth Tar Heel in the last 20 years to finish with at least 111 Ks in a season, joining Andrew Miller (133 in 2006), Patrick Johnson (125 in 2011) and Alex White (121 in 2009 and 113 in 2008).

HIATT THRIVING IN PRIME BULLPEN ROLE

- Redshirt freshman Josh Hiatt, in his first work as a Tar Heel, tallied three saves in three days against Kentucky to open the season. For the entire 2016 season, Carolina (34-21) registered just four total saves.
- With his save in the Friday win over Florida State, Hiatt now has 10 saves in 12 chances. The Charlotte right-hander has a 1.52 ERA in 21 appearances and is limiting opponents to a .154 batting average. In 29.2 innings of work, Hiatt has 39 strikeouts (11.83 K/9).
- Hiatt picked up his first career win in the Saturday victory over FSU, working 2.2 hitless and scoreless innings in the Tar Heels' 5-2 extra-inning win. He worked 4.2 scoreless frames in the Sunday loss to NC State, his longest career outing.

RILEY EARNS ACC PLAYER OF THE WEEK HONORS

- Sophomore outfielder Brandon Riley picked up his first ACC Player of the Week honor on March 27 after leading Carolina to a trio of wins over East Carolina and Miami.
- Riley hit .600 in four games with nine hits, eight RBIs, two home runs and five runs scored. Against the 19th-ranked Pirates, he went 3 for 4 with two runs, four RBIs and hit a three-run home run. Riley, who posted a slugging percentage of 1.067 and an on-base percentage of .588, scored a run and tallied at least one hit in all four games on the week.

DALATRI NAMED ACC PITCHER OF THE WEEK

- Gianluca Dalatri was selected as ACC Pitcher of the Week following his standout performance against Radford on Feb. 26.
- In just his second career start, Dalatri struck out 15 batters with no walks in a 7-5 win. The freshman from Wall Township, New Jersey, threw just 99 pitches with 75 strikes, and went to a 3-ball count just one time in 28 batters. The 15 strikeouts are the most by a Tar Heel pitcher since Matt Harvey struck out 15 at Clemson in 2010, and are the most for a North Carolina freshman under Mike Fox (since 1999).

TAR HEELS PICKED AS COASTAL FAVORITES IN ACC PRESEASON POLL

- Florida State has been selected as the 2017 Atlantic Coast Conference baseball pre-season favorite in a vote of the league's 14 head coaches, while North Carolina was picked as the favorite in the Coastal Division. The Seminoles were picked by 10 coaches as the team to beat in the conference. Clemson, Louisville, North Carolina, and NC State also had one vote for overall conference champion.
- Florida State led the way in the Atlantic Division with 93 points, followed by Louisville (79), Clemson (66), NC State (64), Wake Forest (38), and Boston College and Notre Dame (26).
- Six coaches picked North Carolina to win the Coastal Division, while Virginia (4), Miami (3), and Georgia Tech (1) also had first place votes. The Tar Heels picked up 86 points, just ahead of Virginia (84) and Miami (77).
- Carolina has been picked to win the Coastal six times since the poll went to the divisional system in 2007. On four of the previous five occasions (2007, 2009, 2012 and 2013), the Tar Heels did in fact win the division crown.

ACKLEY'S NO. 13 RETIRED

• Former Carolina great and 2009 Rivals.com National Player of the Year Dustin Ackley had his No. 13 retired in a ceremony during the UNC-Virginia Tech basketball game on Jan. 26 at the Dean E. Smith Center. Ackley became the fourth player in program history to receive this unique honor, joining Dave Lemonds, B.J. Surhoff and Andrew Miller.

• A native of Walnut Cove, North Carolina, Ackley hit .417 with 22 home runs, 75 runs and 73 RBIs in his junior season of 2009 en route to player of the year accolades. He was named ACC Player of the Year and added consensus All-America and first-team All-ACC honors while leading Carolina to its fourth consecutive College World Series appearance. During the 2009 CWS, Ackley recorded his 28th career hit in Omaha to become the all-time hits leader at college baseball's signature event.

• Ackley is the only three-time All-American in school history and left UNC with career records for batting average (.412), hits (346), runs (227) and total bases. He won UNC's Patterson Medal as the school's top male student-athlete and was selected No. 2 overall by the Seattle Mariners in the 2009 MLB Draft. Ackley made his major league debut on June 17, 2011, and has played in parts of six seasons with the Mariners and the New York Yankees.

TAR HEEL FRESHMEN RANK NO. 2 IN BASEBALL AMERICA RECRUITING POLL

- North Carolina was ranked No. 2 nationally in Baseball America's annual recruiting class rankings, the publication announced in October. Led by six members of the BA500, the No. 2 ranking is the highest for the Tar Heels since placing No. 1 overall in 2003.
- Only No. 1 pick Ole Miss had more top-500 prospects than Carolina, which saw all six of its ranked freshmen place among the top 208 nationally.
- RHP Tyler Baum leads the way as the No. 91 overall prospect. He is joined in the top 200 by fellow right-handed pitchers Austin Bergner (165), Gianluca Dalatri (174), Robbie Peto (179) and Bo Weiss (183). Catcher Brandon Martorano, who teamed with Dalatri at Christian Brothers Academy in New Jersey as a prep, rounds out the Tar Heels at No. 208.
- Five of the six Carolina freshmen in the rankings were drafted in the 2016 MLB Draft - Weiss (Yankees, 29th round), Peto (Angels, 30th round), Martorano (Diamondbacks, 30th round), Bergner (Red Sox, 38th round) and Dalatri (Rockies, 40th round).

FOX TO JOIN TAR HEEL GREATS IN N.C. SPORTS HALL OF FAME

- The N.C. Sports Hall of Fame named UNC's Mike Fox to its Class of 2017, Executive Director Don Fish announced in January. Fox, who is in his 19th year as the head coach of the Tar Heels, has guided his alma mater to the most successful period in school history, firmly establishing Carolina as one of the nation's preeminent college baseball programs.
- Fox was a three-year letterwinner at UNC as a second baseman from 1976-78, helping lead the Tar Heels to the 1978 College World Series. As a senior, he hit .277, tied for the team lead with six home runs and was named to the CWS all-tournament team. Fox also played on the Tar Heel junior varsity basketball team under Eddie Fogler in the 1975 and '76 seasons.
- Former UNC athletic director Dick Baddour brought Fox back to Chapel Hill in 1999, and over the last 18 seasons Fox has established a high standard of success, averaging nearly 45 wins per season and guiding the Tar Heels to 50 or more victories five times, including a school-record 59 in 2013.
- One of only six men to play in and then coach his alma mater in the College World Series, Fox has led Carolina to 15 postseason trips, including an incredible run of six CWS appearances in eight years from 2006-13. Fox, who has coached UNC to 15 College World Series victories, has either played or coached in all 17 of Carolina's CWS wins.
- Fox is joined in the Class of 2017 by Glenn Bass, Dwight Durante, Chasity Melvin, Ben Sutton, Caulton Tudor, Steve Vacendak, and Stephanie Wheeler. He joins five others with ties to Carolina baseball who have been previously enshired - Bunn Hearn, Clyde King, Walter Rabb, Danny Talbott and Burgess Whitehead.
- They will be enshrined during the 54th annual induction banquet on the evening of Friday, May 5, at the Raleigh Convention Center.

- Will be making his 10th career start on Saturday.
- Leads all ACC pitchers in innings pitched with 60.1 through nine starts.

• Won his second straight start to improve to 4-2 overall in the victory over NC State on April 15; allowed one run on five hits and struck out five over 6.0 innings.

• Picked up his first career ACC win with six strong innings in a 16-4 victory at Boston College on April 9.

• Did not factor into the decision at Florida State on April 1 after allowing two runs on five hits in 6.2 innings.

• In his shorting outing to date, allowed nine hits over 4.1 innings against Miami on March 25; did not issue a walk for the third time in six starts.

• Took a tough no-decision in a 4-2 loss at Georgia Tech on March 18; allowed two runs (one earned) in eight innings against the Yellow Jackets.

• Despite pitching into the ninth in his ACC debut, took his second straight loss when Virginia scored an unearned run to win 2-1 on March 11.

• Took his first career loss despite allowing just three runs (two earned) on five hits against Long Beach State on March 4.

• Earned ACC Pitcher of the Week honors after his stellar performance against Radford on Feb. 26.

• Went 8.0 innings and struck out 15 batters with no walks against the Highlanders; threw just 99 pitches with 75 strikes and went to a 3-ball count just one time in 28 batters.

• The 15 strikeouts are the most by a Tar Heel pitcher since Matt Harvey struck out 15 at Clemson in 2010, and are the most for a North Carolina freshman under Mike Fox (since 1999).

• Won his UNC debut with seven innings of work in a 5-4 victory over Kentucky on Feb. 19.

• Selected in the 40th round of the 2016 MLB Draft by the Colorado Rockies.

• Three-time all-state performer who led his team to a state title in 2015 and two-time Gatorade Player of the Year in New Jersey.

• Compiled a 30-0 record over his final three seasons of prep ball, including a 10-0 mark as a senior when he struck out 118 against just four walks.

• Father played professional football and coached in the NBA for 30 years and was the first full-time strength and conditioning coach in the league, mother also played professional basketball.
