NIKKI FARGAS

Seventh Season at LSU

- 19 wins over ranked opponents since becoming LSU coach
- 9 All-SEC player selections under Fargas
- 8 NCAA Tournament appearances as head coach (5 - LSU, 3 - UCLA)
- 3 National Championships (one as a player, two in coaching)
- 4 20-win seasons with the Lady Tigers
- 3 LSU WNBA draft picks
- 2 Sweet Sixteen appearances at LSU
- 100% graduation rate for players who have completed eligibility
- 3 of Fargas' players have earned master's degrees from LSU
- 18 SEC Academic Honor Roll selections at LSU
- 73% of games won at the PMAC

Nikki Fargas knows success and what it takes to be successful. In her seventh season at the helm of the Lady Tiger Basketball program in 2017-18, Fargas vows to place the Lady Tigers back into national prominence.

"We're going to do everything in our power to make sure that LSU Women's Basketball is back at that elite level, that we are competing for SEC championships, and that we are positioning ourselves to cut down nets," said Fargas.

Fargas has produced four 20-win seasons and an overall record of 113-83 in six seasons at LSU. Her 113 victories ranks her as the second-winningest Lady Tiger basketball coach in school history in terms of total wins, just behind legendary coach Sue Gunter. Over the six seasons, LSU has secured five NCAA Tournament appearances highlighted by back-to-back trips to the NCAA Sweet 16, and 19 victories over ranked opponents.

Fargas, who won national championships as both a player and an assistant coach at Tennessee and turned UCLA into a national power in just three years, has that combination of outstanding in-game coaching ability and tremendous recruiting competence. In addition, Fargas has been a leader off the court in the Baton Rouge community, helping the Lady Tigers connect with the city of Baton Rouge while donating their time and efforts to making a difference. She and her Lady

Tigers were heavily involved in assisting residents and local church communities following the devastating flood in August 2016 that impacted thousands of people in the area.

In the classroom, LSU has been a shining example of the definition of student-athlete. The Lady Tigers have recorded a perfect score of 100 in graduation success rate released by the NCAA during three seasons under Fargas. For players who have exhausted their eligibility at LSU, Fargas boasts a 100-percent graduation rate. Over the last five years, the Lady Tigers have earned 21 SEC Academic Honor Roll accolades.

Well respected in coaching circles, Fargas has twice been selected by the USA Women's Basketball Committee to serve as an assistant coach for USA National Teams. In the summer of 2012, she became the first coach in LSU history to serve on a USA U18 team staff since the squad's inception in 1988. That team claimed the gold medal at the FIBA Americas Championship. In the summer of 2013, most of that group reunited to lead the USA U19 National Team to a gold medal at the FIBA World Championships in Lithuania. Fargas is the only coach in LSU history to claim multiple USA gold medals during her tenure as Lady Tiger head coach.

Fargas has a championship and winning pedigree at every level of her career and owns an impressive 590-184 record as a player, graduate assistant, assistant coach and head coach dating back to her freshman season at Tennessee. She played, coached and studied under one of the game's greatest figures, the legendary Pat Summitt at Tennessee and she assisted Women's Basketball Hall of Famer Debbie Ryan at Virginia.

Widely recognized as one of the nation's top assistant coaches during stints at Tennessee and Virginia, Fargas took over at UCLA in 2008. In three years with the Bruins, she turned around a UCLA program that had won only one NCAA Tournament game in the nine years prior to her arrival. Fargas led the Bruins to a 72-26 (.735) overall mark, reached the NCAA Tournament twice and finished second in the Pac-10 Conference in both 2010 and 2011.

Off the court, Fargas is a passionate crusader for breast cancer awareness. She and Tennessee head coach Holly Warlick founded the non-profit organization, Champions for a Cause. Since 2007, they have raised over $300,000 through Cruisin' for a Cause, a long-haul motorcycle adventure to raise dollars and awareness for a cure for breast cancer.

Fargas, was raised in Oak Ridge, Tenn., by her mother, Jean Caldwell. She and her husband Justin Fargas are the proud parents of a five-year-old daughter, Justice Simone Fargas.
