>>VERSUS ALASKA ANCHORAGE

- All-time, Bowling Green hold a 13-3-2 advantage over Alaska Anchorage, including a 11-3-2 mark since joining the WCHA.

-During the 2017-18 season the Falcons played the Seawolves four times posting a pair of sweeps (4-0-0).

-The UAA Seawolves are one of three teams in the WCHA with four games played thus far. They have yet to win a conference game this season.

>>LAST TIME OUT

-The Bowling Green State University hockey team enters this matchup having posted a 6-2-1 record on the year thus far. They opened conference play this past weekend with a 1-1-0 split in a home series with Northern Michigan.

-Bowling Green took game one of the series with a three to one victory over the Wildcats on Friday (Nov. 2) night.

-The Falcons scored three goals outshooting the Wildcats 27 to 23 on the evening.

-Taylor Schneider and Sam Craggs each got their second goal of the season putting the Falcons up by two early. Northern Michigan would cut the lead in half in the second before the Brandon Kruse would seal it for the Falcons with his third goal of the season.

-Bowling Green then fell to the Northern Michigan Wildcats in game two of the weekend series by a final of 2-0 on Saturday (Nov. 2) night.

-The Falcons flashed their sticks throughout the game leading shots on goal 35-15, but the Wildcat defense and goaltending was able to freeze all of their attempts.

>>STATISTICAL STANDOUTS

-Coming into this series with Alaska Anchorage, three Falcons remain top 10 in the nation in scoring. Max Johnson and Brandon Kruse are tied for No. 2 in the nation with 13 points. They lead the team overall in scoring. Stephen Baylis is tied for ninth place with 11 points.

- To this point in the season, Bowling Green has outscored their opponents by a total of 39 to 15 in goals scored.

-Eleven different Falcons come into this series with multi-point games on the season thus far. Brandon Kruse and Cameron Wright have the most with three apiece.

- With its 23-12-6 overall record, 2017-18 marked the fourth consecutive season that the Falcons have reached the 20-win milestone. The four-year stint is the third longest in program history, behind a nine season, and six season stretch.

>>BRANDON KRUSE

-Sophomore forward Brandon Kruse enters this series following the ninth multi-point performance of this career, picking up a goal and an assist on Friday (Nov. 2) night.

-The Vegas Golden Knights prospect continues to be one of the nation's top scorers sitting tied for second place with 13 points. This also leads the team along with Kruse's teammate Max Johnson who also has 13 points.

-10 of Kruse's 13 points are assists which leads the Falcons and is tied for most in the nation.

>>NATIONALLY RANKED

- The Bowling Green Falcons are currently ranked No. 10 in the most recent USCHO.com poll.

-While dropping one spot from a week ago (No. 9), this is the highest Bowling Green hockey has been ranked since March 16, 2015 when the Falcons were ranked No. 9. The last time BGSU was ranked higher than No. 9 was February 16, 2015 when they were No. 8.
