THE RECORDS

It's the middle of the season, but not too late to start looking to the Gulf South Conference tournament as the West Georgia Wolves take on the Delta State Statesmen at The Coliseum Monday night. The Wolves come into the game with a 9-4 record overall on the season and a 4-1 record in Dave Moore's first season at the helm of the program. Head coach Jim Boone and his Statesmen are 8-4 on the year and 4-1 in the GSC.

LAST TIME OUT

West Georgia had a solid return to Gulf South Conference play on Saturday against Mississippi College, using a stifling defense to come from behind in the second half to take a 72-59 victory. The Wolves allowed the Choctaws to shoot just 1-for-15 from the three-point line in the win. Delta State moved to 4-1 as well in the GSC with a 66-57 victory over the Shorter Hawks on the road on Saturday. Three Statesmen scored in double-figures, led by Brett Warner with 18 to pace the victory.

SMITH BIDS FOR ALL-AMERICAN

Senior guard Marquill Smith is putting up an All-American caliber season this year, as he leads the Gulf South Conference with 26.3 points per game, a number that also puts him in the top-10 among scorers in the nation. He also leads the league in rebounding, averaging 8.7 boards per game. Smith has six double-doubles on the year, including hitting for 20 points and pulling 11 rebounds Saturday against Mississippi College. Five of his six double-doubles this season have happened in the past six games, including when he scored 32 of the Wolves' 60 points and pulled 10 rebounds against West Alabama on December 17.

TRENDING IN THE BOX SCORE

The Wolves have trailed at halftime three times in Gulf South Conference play this season, coming from behind in two of those three for a victory. The first was on the road at Alabama Huntsville, as West Georgia outscored the Chargers 48-37 in the second half after trailing at halftime by a 41-36 score. Against Mississippi College on Saturday, the Wolves trailed 33-28 before shooting 53 percent from the field and going on a 44-26 second-half run to take their fourth victory of the GSC schedule this season.

10 Years in The Coliseum

- This is the 10th season in The Coliseum, and the Wolves have played 127 games on the men's side in the facility. West Georgia is 6-0 on the year and 89-40 overall in The Coliseum.
- The biggest crowd in the history of The Coliseum for West Georgia basketball was more than 5,000 on February 18, 2012, against Valdosta State. The Wolves won that one 85-52 on a night when Gavin Field broke the UWG record for career three-pointers and joined the 1,000-point club.
- Including this year's roster, 85 players from West Georgia have played on the floor at The Coliseum in the 125-game history of the venue.

Head Coach Dave Moore

Moore takes over the UWG basketball program after 10 years as an assistant coach at St. Bonaventure University in Allegany, N.Y. His resume features 20 years of experience as an assistant coach in NCAA Divisions I, II and III basketball, as well as a short stint at the NAIA level.

In his last five years at St. Bonaventure, the Bonnies won at least 18 games in each season, culminating with a school-record 26 wins in 2017-18. That 26-win season includes a victory over the University of California, Los Angeles (UCLA) in the First Four of the 2018 NCAA Tournament.

UWG's new coach is excited to take on his new challenge.

Credited as a passionate and detail-oriented assistant at St. Bonaventure, Moore was responsible for a consistent and successful player development program as well as taking on the opponent scouting duties during the season.

A true student of the game, Moore helped guide 21 players to sign professional contracts, including Andrew Nicholson, who was the 19th pick in the 2012 NBA Draft. Moore was integral in day-to-day game preparation as well as recruiting efforts that helped take a program from 15 wins in 2007-08 to 26 wins in 2017-18.

Prior to his time at St. Bonaventure, Moore spent the 2006-07 season as an assistant at Division I Robert Morris University, where he managed skill development, scouting and recruiting. He also will fully understand the rigors of Gulf South Conference basketball, as Moore spent two seasons from 2000-02 on the staff at GSC rival Christian Brothers University, where he specialized in game preparation with film breakdown and scouting opponents.

Moore's first collegiate basketball coaching experience came at his alma mater, Bethel College in McKenzie, Tenn., in the 1997-98 season. He moved into the NCAA ranks in 1998, taking an assistant coach position at the College of Mount Saint Joseph in Cincinnati, Ohio.

As a player, Moore was awarded a full athletic scholarship to play basketball at Bethel, where he played for four years. In the 1996-97 season, Moore was named a Scholar Athlete by the TranSouth Conference. In that year, Moore was the team captain and led Bethel in assists. Moore graduated from Bethel in 1998 with a bachelor's degree in history and a minor in secondary education. He received his master's degree in education from Christian Brothers University in 2002. Moore and his wife Erica have two children, Gracie and Cooper.

BENCH SCORING

- Head coach Dave Moore has had a switch-up in his lineup in the past two games, bringing Jared Simmons in off the bench as a sixth-man, and the freshman has not disappointed, scoring 35 points in those two games, and he is 6-for-14 from three-point range in the last two games.
- Simmons has scored 41 points now off the bench this season, including a high for any player this season with 20 against Oakwood. Deng Nhial leads the team with 67 total points off the bench.
- West Georgia received 40 points from the bench against Oakwood, the most of any game thus far this season.

THREE-POINT SHOOTING

- The Wolves have now hit 90 three-pointers through the first 13 games of the season.
- The past two Gulf South Conference victories have seen the UWG perimeter take a step in the direction of being elite. In those games combined, the Wolves allowed 4-of-35 from the three-point line and are now second in the GSC in opponent three-point percentage.
- The most three-pointers in a game for the Wolves this season thus far came one week apart from each other. Greg James hit 7-for-11 on November 17. Marquill Smith has hit five three-pointers in a game three times this season.

GSC WEEKLY AWARDS

- Jared Simmons became the second UWG player to win a weekly award in early December, as he was named GSC Freshman of the Week. Marquill Smith was named Player of the Week on November 27.
- Smith is narrowing in on becoming the 11th player in West Georgia basketball history to score 1,000 points in a career. He comes into

INDIVIDUAL LEADERS

- Marquill Smith is leading the GSC in both scoring (26.8) and rebounding (8.7), while Aren Ulmer leads the league in steals, averaging 2.6 steals per game.
- Smith has scored 20 points in all 13 of the Wolves contests thus far this season and now has six double-doubles on the year after 20 points and 11 rebounds against Mississippi College Saturday.
- Smith has done a solid job of getting to the free-throw line this season, in fact going to the line 18 more times than the next three shooters, who each have one more game played on the year. Smith has made 75-of-105 from the charity stripe. His free-throws made is the most in the GSC, and his free-throw percentage (.714) is third.

TOP TEAM CATEGORIES

- West Georgia has been third in the league in scoring offense for the past four games, averaging 77.6 points per game on the year. The Wolves lead the GSC in blocked shots and steals through the first 13 games.
- The Wolves have allowed less than 20 percent from three-point range in the past three games, moving to second in opponent percentage from long-range at .307.
