THE RECORDS

Thursday at Lee marks the third game in seven days for the West Georgia Wolves, as head coach Dave Moore and his squad look to rebound from a tough loss at The Coliseum on Monday evening. Both the Wolves and Flames come into Thursday's game with 9-5 records, while UWG is 4-2 against league play and Lee is 6-0.

LAST TIME OUT

The Wolves struggled to find the basket on Monday evening against Delta State, as the Statesmen snapped UWG's three-game winning streak with a 74-51 win over the Wolves. Marquill Smith had his first game of the season with less than 20 points scored, netting just six points in the loss. Lee won it's eighth-straight last Saturday at Christian Brothers, winning 70-55.

PLAYERS OF THE WEEK

For the second time this season, two different Wolves were named as the recipient of a weekly honor. This week, however, two awards came for UWG, with Smith picking up his second Player of the Week honor of the year. Smith averaged 20.5 points and 13 rebounds during the week to earn the honor. Jared Simmons averaged 17.5 points per game and hit 6-of-14 from three-point range in the two games directly after the holiday break. Against Oakwood last Wednesday, he was solid at the free-throw line, hitting 5-of-6.

FRESHMEN SHOWING OUT

With injuries early in the season, head coach Dave Moore has needed his freshman class to grow into the college game quickly. That group took the challenge and has quickly taken a step forward in helping the Wolves to a 9-5 record heading into the 15th game of the season. Jared Simmons has been the top freshman scorer for West Georgia, producing seven double-figure scoring games on the year. He has also won GSC Freshman of the Week twice, including this past week for his 35 points scored combined against Oakwood and Mississippi College. He had a career-high against MC, netting 20 in the contest. Michael Zabetakis has also been a solid scorer, putting up at least 10 points in four games thus far, including 15 against Delta State on Monday.

10 Years in The Coliseum

- This is the 10th season in The Coliseum, and the Wolves have played 127 games on the men's side in the facility. West Georgia is 6-1 on the year and 89-41 overall in The Coliseum.
- The biggest crowd in the history of The Coliseum for West Georgia basketball was more than 5,000 on February 18, 2012, against Valdosta State. The Wolves won that one 85-52 on a night when Gavin Field broke the UWG record for career three-pointers and joined the 1,000-point club.
- Including this year's roster, 85 players from West Georgia have played on the floor at The Coliseum in the 125-game history of the venue.

Head Coach Dave Moore

Moore takes over the UWG basketball program after 10 years as an assistant coach at St. Bonaventure University in Allegany, N.Y. His resume features 20 years of experience as an assistant coach in NCAA Divisions I, II and III basketball, as well as a short stint at the NAIA level.

In his last five years at St. Bonaventure, the Bonnies won at least 18 games in each season, culminating with a school-record 26 wins in 2017-18. That 26-win season includes a victory over the University of California, Los Angeles (UCLA) in the First Four of the 2018 NCAA Tournament.

UWG's new coach is excited to take on his new challenge.

Credited as a passionate and detail-oriented assistant at St. Bonaventure, Moore was responsible for a consistent and successful player development program as well as taking on the opponent scouting duties during the season.

A true student of the game, Moore helped guide 21 players to sign professional contracts, including Andrew Nicholson, who was the 19th pick in the 2012 NBA Draft. Moore was integral in day-to-day game preparation as well as recruiting efforts that helped take a program from 15 wins in 2007-08 to 26 wins in 2017-18.

Prior to his time at St. Bonaventure, Moore spent the 2006-07 season as an assistant at Division I Robert Morris University, where he managed skill development, scouting and recruiting. He also will fully understand the rigors of Gulf South Conference basketball, as Moore spent two seasons from 2000-02 on the staff at GSC rival Christian Brothers University, where he specialized in game preparation with film breakdown and scouting opponents.

Moore's first collegiate basketball coaching experience came at his alma mater, Bethel College in McKenzie, Tenn., in the 1997-98 season. He moved into the NCAA ranks in 1998, taking an assistant coach position at the College of Mount Saint Joseph in Cincinnati, Ohio.

As a player, Moore was awarded a full athletic scholarship to play basketball at Bethel, where he played for four years. In the 1996-97 season, Moore was named a Scholar Athlete by the TranSouth Conference. In that year, Moore was the team captain and led Bethel in assists. Moore graduated from Bethel in 1998 with a bachelor's degree in history and a minor in secondary education. He received his master's degree in education from Christian Brothers University in 2002. Moore and his wife Erica have two children, Gracie and Cooper.

BENCH SCORING

- Head coach Dave Moore has had a switch-up in his lineup in the past three games, bringing Jared Simmons in off the bench as a sixth-man, and the freshman has not disappointed, scoring 37 points in those two games, and he is 6-for-19 from three-point range in the last three games.
- Simmons has scored 43 points now off the bench this season, including a high for any player this season with 20 against Oakwood. Deng Nhial leads the team with 72 total points off the bench.
- West Georgia received 40 points from the bench against Oakwood, the most of any game thus far this season.

THREE-POINT SHOOTING

- Two of the top-10 shooters in the Gulf South Conference in three-point shooting reside on the Wolves' roster this year.
- Marquill Smith is 8th in the league in three-point shooting, hitting 37.3 percent from beyond the arc on the year. Jared Simmons hits threes at a .381 clip, good for seventh in the league.
- The most three-pointers in a game for the Wolves this season thus far came one week apart from each other. Greg James hit 7-for-11 on November 17. Marquill Smith has hit five three-pointers in a game three times this season.

GSC WEEKLY AWARDS

- Jared Simmons has been GSC Freshman of the Week twice along with Marquill Smith earning GSC Player of the Week twice. Both shooters earned those titles with their play in the past week against Delta State.
- Smith is narrowing in on becoming the 11th player in West Georgia basketball history to score 1,000 points in a career. He comes into

INDIVIDUAL LEADERS

- Marquill Smith is leading the GSC in both scoring (24.9) and rebounding (8.5), while Aren Ulmer leads the league in steals, averaging 2.6 steals per game.
- Smith has scored 20 points in 13 of the Wolves' 15 contests thus far this season and now has six double-doubles on the year after 20 points and 11 rebounds against Mississippi College last Saturday.
- Smith has done a solid job of getting to the free-throw line this season, in fact going to the line eight more times than the next three shooters, who each have one more game played on the year. Smith has made 75-of-105 from the charity stripe. His free-throws made is the most in the GSC, and his free-throw percentage (.714) is third.

TOP TEAM CATEGORIES

- West Georgia has been third in the league in scoring offense for the past four games, averaging 75.7 points per game on the year. The Wolves lead the GSC in blocked shots and steals through the first 13 games.
- The Wolves have allowed less than 20 percent from three-point range in tet three games, moving to second in opponent percentage from long-range at .307.
