Around the Southern Conference this Week

Samford's outfielder Jordan Fucci and The Citadel's left-hander Shane Connolly have been named the Southern Conference player and pitcher of the week, respectively, for all games March 18-24.

Starting all four games for the Bulldogs last week, Fucci hit .611 (11-for-18) at the plate with five doubles, a triple and a home run with three RBIs and seven runs scored. Against No. 2-ranked Mississippi State on Wednesday, the redshirt-junior went 3-for-5 with a home run and two RBIs. In the three-game series sweep of Furman this past weekend, he went a combined 8-for-13 with five doubles and a triple. He had at least two hits in every game last week with his best game of the week coming in game two of the weekend series against Furman when he went 4-for-5 with three doubles.

The Lexington, Kentucky, native is currently third for Samford in batting average (.310), tied for second in runs scored (18) with teammate Anthony Mulrine, is third in hits (26) and doubles (7) and tied for first with teammate Brooks Carlson for triples (1).

The Citadel's Connolly tossed his second complete-game shutout of the season on Saturday against VMI in the Bulldogs conference-opening series. The sophomore limited the Keydets to just four singles and after giving up two hits in the second inning, did not allow another hit until the seventh inning, only allowed one base runner to reach base. His efforts gave the Bulldogs the 1-0 victory.

The Huntersville, North Carolina, native currently ranks first for The Citadel in ERA (1.25) and opposing batting average (.203) and ranks second in the conference in ERA. This is Connolly's second time being honored as conference pitcher of the week this season.
